Kenneth L. Pike, aged 88, internationally recognized linguist, educator, and Christian thinker, died in Dallas, Texas, on December 31, 2000, after a brief illness of only five days. Evelyn Griset Pike, his wife and closest friend since their marriage in 1938, and their oldest daughter, Judith, were at his side.

Dr. Pike was born in East Woodstock, Connecticut, on June 9, 1912, the seventh of eight children of a country doctor. He received his bachelor's degree in 1933 from Gordon College (then in Boston). In 1935 he joined SIL and served in Mexico studying Amerindian languages. He received his Ph.D. in linguistics at the University of Michigan in 1942 under Charles Fries—Bloomfield was also on his dissertation committee—and later served for 30 years on the U. Michigan faculty. Pike was the recipient of ten honorary doctorates/professorships from universities around the world, including the University of Chicago, Université René Descartes, the University of Lima, and Albert-Ludwigs University in Freiburg, Germany. His leadership included serving as President of the Linguistic Society of America, President of the Linguistic Association of Canada and the United States, and from 1942 to 1979, President of the Summer Institute of Linguistics (now SIL International). He was chair of the University of Michigan Linguistics Department from 1975 to 1977 and director of the English Language Institute at U. Michigan at the same time. For a quarter of a century he divided his time between U. Michigan and SIL, as Director of the SIL school at the University of Oklahoma and helping to establish other SIL schools around the world.
