Kenya Polytechnic January 2015:

Health Communication in the Changing Media Landscape Ravindra Kumar Vemula, Subba Rao M

Gavaravarapu, 2017-02-07 This book advances new understandings of how technologies have been harnessed to improve the health of populations whether the technologies really empower those who use information by providing them with a choice of information how they shape health policy discourses how the health information relates to traditional belief systems and local philosophies the implications for health communicators how certain forms of silence are produced when media articulates and problematizes only a few health issues and sidelines others and much more The book brings together current research and discussions on the three areas of policy practices and theoretical perspectives related to health communication approaches in developing countries presenting well researched and documented essays that will prove helpful for academic and scholarly inquiry in this area Pauulu's Diaspora Quito J. Association for the Study of African American Life and History Book Prize Honorable Mention Organization of American Historians Liberty Legacy Foundation Award A Black Perspectives Best Black History Book of 2020 Winner of the African American Intellectual History Society Pauli Murray Book Prize Bermuda Literary Awards Dr Eva Hodgson Prize for Non Fiction Pauulu's Diaspora is a sweeping story of black internationalism across the Atlantic Indian and Pacific Ocean worlds told through the life and work of twentieth century environmental activist Pauulu Kamarakafego Challenging U S centered views of Black Power Quito Swan offers a radically broader perspective showing how Kamarakafego helped connect liberation efforts of the African diaspora throughout the Global South Born in Bermuda and with formative experiences in Cuba Kamarakafego was aware at an early age of the effects of colonialism and the international scope of racism and segregation After pursuing graduate studies in ecological engineering he traveled to Africa where he was inspired by the continent's independence struggles and contributed to various sustainable development movements Swan explores Kamarakafego's remarkable fusion of political agitation and scientific expertise and traces his emergence as a central coordinator of major black internationalist conferences Despite government surveillance Kamarakafego built a network of black organizers that reached from Kenya to the islands of Oceania and included such figures as C L R James Queen Mother Audley Moore Kwame Nkrumah Sonia Sanchez Sylvia Hill Malcolm X Vanessa Griffen and Stokely Carmichael In a riveting narrative that runs through Caribbean sugarcane fields Liberian rubber plantations and Papua New Guinean rainforests Pauulu's Diaspora recognizes a global leader who has largely been absent from scholarship In doing so it brings to light little known relationships among Black Power pan Africanism and environmental justice Ecopsychology Darlyne G.

Nemeth, Robert B. Hamilton, Judy Kuriansky, 2015-09-09 This anthology is a two volume work that focuses on our relationship with the Earth and our future examining the crossover between psychology and environmental studies in the emerging fields of ecopsychology and environmental psychology This set offers the first comprehensive and holistic understanding of how our human activities are very rapidly changing the earth's environment and harming its inhabitants. Since our present path of population growth and use of finite global resources is unsustainable, we must find new ways to protect our environment and our future. Offering unique perspectives and guidance toward holistic new solutions, this reader-friendly anthology serves a vast audience in the fields of psychology and environmental studies as well as scientists, humanitarians, educators, and policymakers. This work presents readers with the latest research on psychology and the environment, gives examples from around the world, applies to programs for youth and adults, and appeals to all stakeholders including those in public health, policy, environmental studies, and more. The reader will gain the perspective and understanding of policies needed to effect environmental change and holistically manage the direction of that change.

Africa's Natural Resources and Underdevelopment Kwamina Panford, 2017-02-02 This book explores how African countries can convert their natural resources, particularly oil and gas, into sustainable development assets. Using Ghana, one of the continent's newest oil-producing countries, as a lens, it examines the resource curse faced by other producers such as Nigeria, Angola, and Equatorial Guinea, and demonstrates how mismanagement in those countries can provide valuable lessons for new oil producers in Africa and elsewhere. Relying on a broad range of fieldwork and policymaking experience, Panford suggests practical measures for resource-rich developing countries to transform natural resources into valuable assets that can help create jobs, boost human resources, and improve living and working conditions in Ghana, in particular. He suggests fiscal, legal, and environmental antidotes to resource mismanagement, which he identifies as the major obstacle to socioeconomic development in countries that have historically relied on natural resources.

Educating for Durable Solutions Christine Monaghan, 2021-04-08 What is education for an unknowable future? In Educating for Durable Solutions, Christine Monaghan explores how refugees and policymakers have answered this question over time by reconstructing the contemporary history of education in Kenya's Dadaab and Kakuma refugee camps. Through oral histories and archival research, Monaghan shows how, since the founding of both camps in 1991, refugees and policymakers have conceptualized, developed, implemented, and changed refugee education programs. She also shows why and how, despite these changes, real challenges persist in refugee education in Dadaab, Kakuma, and other camps throughout the world: these include high numbers of out-of-school children and youth, high student-to-teacher ratios, unpredictable funding, and persistent questions regarding what refugee education is for. The author shifts focus from debates over the impacts of specific policies and programs and explores instead how and why different policies and programs were implemented, whether they led to meaningful changes in the long-standing challenges of refugee education. She finds that when and where real changes occurred, individuals or small groups of refugees and policymakers acted with tremendous agency and as tireless advocates.

The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume II Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2024-11-22 Architecture and the urban are connected to challenges around violence, security, race, and ideology, spectacle, and data. The first volume of this
