Understanding Standardized Test Writing Prompts Narrative Writing Task (NWT)

Directions: The following are the writing prompts for students to read, understand, and respond to. These are included for students to read and understand. The writing prompts for the prompt will be distributed and will be read aloud and discussed. The writing prompts are included for the student to read and understand the writing prompt.

The Steps-

1. Read the prompt and understand it.

2. Read the prompt and understand it.

3. Read the prompt and understand it. (You will be able to do this for each prompt and understand it.)

4. Read the prompt and understand it. (You will be able to do this for each prompt and understand it.)

Research Simulation Task: you will see something like "Identify the common central idea of the passages." You will be responding to a Literary Analysis Task you might see, "Analyze and describe the author's use of figurative language, character actions, images," or if you are responding to a Narrative Writing Task you might see "Write a story about a character's reaction." These are the topics you are expected to discuss in your essay. Underline the main idea of the prompt and the prompt.

Afterward, look for additional directions that tell you things that should be included in the prompt, for example, "evidence from all of the texts." Circle the additional directions.

Directions: For each prompt below follow the bulleted steps to analyze the prompt then answer the questions.

Prompt 1

You have read a passage from "The Little Mermaid" in paragraph 22. Ariel's mother begins to realize how her love for Ariel is making her ill.

Write a story about this realization from the mother's perspective. Use what you have learned about the characters from the passage and add elaboration of your own to show the mother's feelings about what is happening and why she is feeling this way.

1. What is your main topic for the prompt? Circle your choice: A. main topic of the prompt B. main topic of the prompt C. main topic of the prompt D. main topic of the prompt
2. Write the main topic or describe the prompt as a question. For example, what was Ariel's reaction after Jack bumped down the hill? Or write a story describing Ariel's reaction after Jack bumped down the hill.
3. What is your main topic for the prompt? Circle your choice: A. main topic of the prompt B. main topic of the prompt C. main topic of the prompt D. main topic of the prompt
