Cultural Mediation in Language Learning and Teaching Geneviève Zarate, Council of Europe, European Centre for Modern Languages, 2004-01-01 This project attempts to tackle several challenges to experience the variety of different teaching cultures as a source of innovation rather than as an obstacle to adopt a pluridisciplinary approach by introducing references taken from the social sciences in order to develop reflection on the role of languages in social cohesion to try and provide answers to a question hitherto rarely raised in the didactics of languages and cultures namely the place of cultural mediation itself CoE website □□, 2003 Perspectives Studies in Translatology 2003 4

Learning From Others Diane Shorrocks-Taylor, Edgar W. Jenkins, 2005-12-20 Diane Shorrocks Taylor School of Education University of Leeds UK In September 1998 a conference was held at the University of Leeds entitled International comparisons of pupil performance issues and policy It was arranged by two groups within the School of Education at the University the newly formed Assessment and Evaluation Unit and the Centre for Studies in Science and Mathematics Education The joint interest in international comparisons of performance had itself arisen from earlier involvement in a follow up study of the 1995 TIMSS work in England reported in a later chapter in this book in which the TIMSS assessment outcomes were studied alongside the outcomes from the National Curriculum testing programme in England Some of the results of this investigation had proved both interesting and challenging so the decision was made to promote wider discussion of some key issues by inviting contributors from all over the world to a meeting the major aims of which were to promote an exploration of the theoretical foundations of international comparative studies of student performance the practical problems of carrying out such studies the appropriateness of the assessment models and approaches used in international comparisons the role of international comparative studies in raising standards of student performance and how international studies affect the shaping of national policy on education
