

The background of the slide features a glowing blue network of interconnected lines and dots, resembling a digital or neural network. In the lower half, a person's arms are visible, holding a large, metallic dumbbell horizontally. The person is wearing a bright blue long-sleeved shirt. The text "Education Trends" is centered in the upper half, and "2020" is centered below it, both in a white, sans-serif font. The dumbbell is positioned behind the year "2020".

COVID 19 is a highly contagious viral illness caused by severe acute respiratory syndrome SARSCoV 2 It has had a devastating effect on the world s demographics with high morbidity and mortality worldwide After the influenza pandemic of 1918 it has emerged as the most consequential global health crisis After the first cases of this predominantly respiratory viral illness were first reported in Wuhan Hubei Province China in late December 2019 SARS CoV 2 rapidly disseminated across the world in a short span of time compelling the World Health Organization WHO to declare it a global pandemic on March 11 2020 The outbreak of COVID 19 has proven to be a worldwide unprecedented disaster It has physically psychologically socially and economically afflicted billions of people across the globe Its transmission is significantly high Serious postrecovery has been noticed in a large number of people The virus is highly mutable and new and new strains are appearing and many of them such as delta BA1 and BA2 subvariants as well as their hybrids have been considered by the WHO as concerning The virus has exhibited deleterious impacts on bodily systems other than the respiratory system primary target such as the brain hematological system liver kidneys endocrine system etc Right after its declaration as a pandemic by the WHO in March 2020 governments in various countries declared lockdowns to combat the spread of disease causing major disruption to the lives of billions of people Besides the impact on health and healthcare systems education was changed with the introduction of online and or hybrid systems to help students continue to learn Though the pandemic has subsided now the emergence of new variants continues and lifestyle changes such as online learning and work from home have continued Researchers who successfully mitigated the negative impact of social media and effectively used it for acceptance of medicinal or non medicinal measures during pandemics by developing a realtime information sharing system and assembling a multidisciplinary team of experts to collect and analyze data from a variety of social media platforms across the global diaspora to better understand people s perceptions and attitudes as well as to spot early warning signs of error and correct them before they proliferate They also emphasized the necessity of addressing people's perceptions in order to increase awareness and education so that social media may be used to promote public trust collaboration and improved adherence to epidemic control measures. In totality the pandemic affected the environment and ecosystem as a whole positively due to a decrease in vehicles on roads and less movement of persons from one place to another. However, medical waste was increased and new measures were needed to handle it. People have had to change their habits in everyday life in order to live with the pandemic and protect themselves and others. This volume focuses on the implications of COVID 19 on education environment and lifestyle. It includes chapters on the transformation of education systems and introduction of hybrid modes of education, impact on environment, management of solid wastes and development of innovative gadgets and architectural designs to help deal with the pandemic. Other chapters cover diet, family systems and adoption of new norms in pandemic times. This book will be a valued resource for students, teachers and researchers of social science and science as well as public health workers.

Radical Solutions for Education in a Crisis Context Daniel Burgos, Ahmed Tlili, Anita Tabacco, 2020-12-21. This book presents how to keep working on education in contexts of crisis such as emergencies, zones of conflict, wars and health pandemics such as COVID 19. Specifically, this work shows a number of strategies to support global learning and teaching in online settings. Particularly, it first presents how to facilitate knowledge sharing and raising awareness about a specific crisis to increase people's safety including educators and learners. The book then discusses various techniques, mechanisms and services that could be implemented to provide effective learning support for learners especially in learning environments that they do not daily use such as physical classrooms. Further, the work presents how to teach and support online educators no matter if they are school teachers, university lecturers, youth social workers, vocational training facilitators or of any other kind. Finally, it describes worldwide case studies that have applied practical steps to keep education running during a crisis. This book provides readers with insights and guidelines on how to maintain learning uninterrupted during contexts of crisis. It also provides basic and practical recommendations to the various stakeholders in educational contexts: students, content providers, technology services, policy makers, school teachers, university lecturers, academic managers and others about flexible, personalised and effective education in the context of crisis.

Handbook of Research on Effective Online Language Teaching in a Disruptive Environment LeLoup, Jean W., Swanson, Pete, 2021-11-26. The COVID 19 pandemic radically and rapidly and perhaps forever changed the K-20 educational landscape. Higher Education and the COVID-19 Pandemic ,2022-06-13 COVID 19 caused massive disruptions in the higher education sector across the world The transition to online learning exposed the deep rooted inequalities between countries systems institutions and student groups in terms of the availability of information technology infrastructure internet access and digital literacy as well as prior training and experiences of faculty in online education This volume explores various aspects of the impact of the pandemic on higher education management including how university administration responded to the crisis and the role of local and national government agencies in academic support and higher education delivery The key findings highlight the importance of better organisation and preparedness of higher education systems for future crises and the need for a better dialogue between governments higher education institutions and other stakeholders The book calls for a collective response to address the digital divide among various groups and financial inequalities within and between the private and public universities and to plan for the serious challenges that international students face during crisis situations

Proceedings of The Focus Conference (TFC 2022) Manyane Makua,Mariam Akinlolu,Mashango Sithole,Phiwayinkosi Gumede,Cebo Nyondo,2023-02-08 This is an open access book It is a common cause globally that the abrupt emergence of Covid 19 wreaked havoc in all sectors including the higher education system The sudden closure of campuses as a social distancing measure to prevent community transmission has shifted face to face classes to online teaching and learning a transformative experiment for academics and students in most institutions This has thrown the focus on utilising Learning Management Systems LMS eLearning tools and platforms for effective student engagement which may have limitations of accessibility and affordability for many students The pandemic has exposed the shortcomings of the current higher education system and the need for more training of academics and practitioners in digital technology to adapt to the rapidly changing educational climate In the post pandemic situation eLearning and virtual education may become an integral part of the higher education system hence the question of re inventing higher education The higher education institutions and universities need to plan the post pandemic education and research strategies to ensure student learning outcomes and standards of educational quality With the move to online teaching and learning subsequently traditional assessments followed and were adapted and adopted for online assessment. Assessments lie at the heart of the teaching process. It shapes students' understanding of the curriculum and determines their ability to progress. Reflections on assessments during Covid 19 abounded with the challenges that both academics and students faced regarding online assessments including cheating and quality assurance issues. The focus on quality extended to the quality of teaching and learning in general. Moreover, the pandemic brought about the question of staff and student health and psychosocial support also became important. For academics, the abrupt shift to adapt to working from home and implementing online learning has led to overwork, low work-life balance, and compromised mental health. With a view on constructive and futuristic discourse, the sub-themes of the 2022 Focus conference encapsulate the current realities in the higher education sector and beyond. It further provides opportunities for an in-depth analysis based on the benefit of hindsight and foresight. The Organising Committee specifically coined the theme 'Re-inventing higher education: Insights, trends, and lessons learnt from specifically for the conference to reflect on and address the matters mentioned earlier. Academics, scholars, and practitioners in the higher education sector are called upon to share their research and express their perspectives on the reinvention of higher education.
