Calvary Selection of Spriritual Songs Charles Seymour Robinson, Robert Stuart MacArthur, 1881 A Selection of Spiritual Songs Charles Seymour Robinson, 1881 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1973 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Between Discipline and a Hard Place Alana Jelinek, 2020-07-09 Written from the perspective of a practising artist this book proposes that against a groundswell of historians museums and commentators claiming to speak on behalf of art it is artists alone who may define what art really is Jelinek contends that while there are objects called art in museums from deep into human history and from around the globe from Hans Sloane s collection which became the foundation of the British Museum to Alfred Barr s inclusion of primitive art within the walls of MoMA the Museum of Modern Art only those that have been made with the knowledge and discipline of art should rightly be termed as such Policing the definition of art in this way is not to entrench it as an elitist occupation but in order to focus on its liberal democratic potential Between Discipline and a Hard Place describes the value of art outside the current preoccupation with economic considerations yet without resorting to a range of stereotypical and ultimately instrumentalist political or social goods such as social inclusion or education A wider argument is also made for disciplinarity as Jelinek discusses the great potential as well as the pitfalls of interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary working particularly with the so called creative arts A passionate treatise arguing for a new way of understanding art that forefronts the role of the artist and the importance of inclusion within both the concept of art and the art world Guide to Reference
