Teachers, Pupils, and Primary Schooling Paul Croll, 1996 The Primary Assessment Curriculum and Experience PACE project is a unique study of the implementation of the National Curriculum at primary school level in England The combination of extensive interviews with teachers headteachers and pupils and detailed observation in classrooms provides the most thorough account available of this major educational innovation The editor and contributors to this text are all members of the PACE team Teachers Pupils and Primary Schooling extends the account in Changing English Primary Schools Cassell 1994 to focus on the National Curriculum as children move from Key Stage 1 ages 5-7 to Key Stage 2 ages 7 9 The study looks at aspects of continuity in the curriculum teacher professionalism and pupil perceptions which have emerged in the analysis of data from the project Additionally it incorporates the modification of the National Curriculum following a review by Sir Ron Dearing in 1994 and is informed by a context of uncertainty critique and constant policy change All those interested in the impact of the educational changes of the late 1980s and the first half of the 1990s whether they be academics teachers student teachers school governors or policy makers will find this book vital reading Film & Video Finder ,1997 The Legacy of the Ancient World William George De Burgh,1953 The History of Black Studies Abdul Alkalimat,2021-10-20 A surge of African American enrolment and student activism brought Black Studies to many US campuses in the 1960s Sixty years later Black Studies programmes are taught at more than 1 300 universities worldwide This book is the first history of how that happened Black Studies founder and movement veteran Abdul Alkalimat offers a comprehensive history of the discipline that will become a key reference for generations to come Structured in three broadly chronological sections Black Studies as intellectual history as social movement and as academic profession the book demonstrates how Black people themselves established the field long before its institutionalisation in university programmes At its heart Black Studies is profoundly political Black Power the New Communist Movement the Black women s and students movements each step in the journey for Black liberation influenced and was influenced by this revolutionary discipline

Christ Identity Sergio Rosell Nebreda,2011-03-09 Sergio Rosell Nebreda focuses on how the Philippian Christ followers received Paul s letter The social historical literary rhetorical anthropological and theological elements are dealt with in order to understand the effect Paul wanted to achieve The main thesis of the book is that the apostle Paul who greatly suffered at Philippi and writing from a prison desires to affect the Philippians believers to acquire a Christ orientation based on the values expressed in the Christ hymn Phlp 2 5 11 forms the core of Paul s theological narrative that aims at constructing a sense of imitatio and conformatio in the Christ following community Paul uses a friendly style in his letters in order to produce rapport and trust in the community presenting himself as exemplum ad imitando after that of Christ It is because Paul so fully identifies with Christ s orientation in life that the apostle presents himself as a slave of Jesus Christ In the midst of a society ill with the desire for honour and power the Christ narrative stands as a radical call for an alternative life style based on the exercise of humility which seeks the interest of others rather than focusing on one s own needs and desires Paul insists on the basis of the Christ hymn that such a life style reveals God s character and it is therefore a life rewarded Through the use of Social Identity Theory this book evaluates how ancient people constructed their group identity in daily life and how through a seemingly inferior model that of Christ s kenosis in 2 5 11 the community receives a re definition of values which are according to God s values and who has the last word in history Paul thus presents an alternative and viable way of life in the midst of a society he knows well Video Source Book ,2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry
