Handbook of Formative Assessment in the Disciplines Heidi L. Andrade, Randy E. Bennett, Gregory J. Cizek, 2019-05-14 The Handbook of Formative Assessment in the Disciplines meaningfully addresses current developments in the field offering a unique and timely focus on domain dependency Building from an updated definition of formative assessment the book covers the integration of measurement principles into practice the operationalization of formative assessment within specific domains beyond generic strategies evolving research directions including student involvement and self regulation and new approaches to the challenges of incorporating formative assessment training into pre service and in service educator training As supporters of large scale testing programs increasingly consider the potential of formative assessments to improve teaching and learning this handbook advances the subject through novel frameworks intersections of theory research and practice and attention to discernible disciplines Written for instructors graduate students researchers and policymakers each chapter provides expert perspectives on the procedures and evaluations that enable teachers to adapt teaching and learning in process toward student achievement

Reading for Real Kathy Collins,2008 Just as adults join clubs to share and talk about common interests reading clubs allow kids to immerse themselves in topics and ideas they care about whether it s turtles fairy tales a beloved author a favorite new series or the desire to get better at reading aloud to a baby brother or sister While they are reading and talking about their interests and passions students in reading clubs are also orchestrating all of the reading skills and strategies they ve learned and applying them in real life ways While Kathy presents ideas for implementing reading clubs during reading workshop in a balanced literacy framework the information she provides will be helpful for any teacher who wants to foster the joy of reading by offering students support and opportunities to read for authentic purposes and to have conversations about topics that interest and engage them After all we don t just want kids to learn to read we want them to love to read
