Lyric Realism Poetry For People:

Lyric Realism Joy Boughton, 2013-10 Overview coming soon The Medieval Lyric Peter Dronke, 1996 He shows the men and women who sang and played in medieval Europe as the heirs of both a Roman and a Germanic lyric tradition united but differentiated from country to country he introduces the scholars and musicians from the Byzantine world and the Paris schools the German courts and Italian city states and he brilliantly presents their work both sacred and profane The Lyrical in Epic Time David Der-wei Wang, 2015-01-20 In this book David Der wei Wang uses the lyrical to rethink the dynamics of Chinese modernity Although the form may seem unusual for representing China's social and political crises in the mid twentieth century Wang contends that national cataclysm and mass movements intensified Chinese lyricism in extraordinary ways Wang calls attention to the form's vigor and variety at an unlikely juncture in Chinese history and the precarious consequences it brought about betrayal self abjuration suicide and silence Despite their divergent backgrounds and commitments the writers artists and intellectuals discussed in this book all took lyricism as a way to explore selfhood in relation to solidarity the role of the artist in history and the potential for poetry to illuminate crisis They experimented with poetry fiction film intellectual treatise political manifesto painting calligraphy and music Western critics Wang shows also used lyricism to critique their perilous epic time He reads Martin Heidegger Theodor Adorno Cleanth Brooks and Paul de Man among others to complete his portrait The Chinese case only further intensifies the permeable nature of lyrical discourse forcing us to reengage with the dominant role of revolution and enlightenment in shaping Chinese and global modernity Wang's remarkable survey reestablishes Chinese lyricism's deep roots in its own native traditions along with Western influences and realizes the relevance of such a lyrical calling of the past century to our time Lyrical Movements, Historical Hauntings Geeta Patel, 2002 This is one of the first books in any language on the life and work of Miraji 1912-1949 one of the major canonical Urdu poets of the 20th century Presenting close readings of some of Miraji's most compelling and challenging poems the author reconceives the relationships among nationalism gender and sexuality in Indian life The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian, Anna Elizabeth Balakian, 1984 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty-one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today Poetry of the Civil Rights Movements in Australia and the United States, 1960s-1980s Ameer Chasib Furaih, 2024-09-03 This book examines the poetries of two Aboriginal Australian poets namely Oodgeroo Noonuccal formerly Kath Walker 1920 1993 and Lionel Fogarty 1958 and two African American Black Arts poets namely Amiri Baraka formerly Everett LeRoi Jones 1934 2014 and Sonia Sanchez 1943 to demonstrate their role in the struggle for civil and human rights of their peoples from the 1960s The book demonstrates commonalities and differences in the strategies of these poets literary and political resistance These poet activists though ethnically diverse and geographically dispersed share comparable socio political concerns and aspirations Their activism is not a reflection of a single ideological current but a bricolage of many ideologies and perspectives They have engaged in trans Pacific political movements and transgressed the borders of any one ideological territory It is important to establish Aboriginal and African American trans Pacific communication because these poets have collaborated and engaged in global politics whether in the form of Garveyism or the transnation Their poetries are characterized by an irresistible drive towards international rhizomatic collaboration and engagement This is a transcontinental literary influence exerted by African American poets on Aboriginal poets during the 1960s and beyond Anthology of Georgian Poetry M. Kveselava, 2002-02 The Maccabaeon ,1915 The Maccabæan ,1915 The Quarterly Review William Gifford, Sir John Taylor Coleridge, John Gibson Lockhart, Whitwell Elwin, William Macpherson, William Smith, Sir John Murray IV, Rowland Edmund Prothero (Baron Ernle), 1910
