Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Elise Nykänen, 2024-11-08 Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Case Studies in Finnish Literature opens a new perspective on the thriving area of research on the imagined North by studying emotions in the light of case studies in Finnish literature The volume addresses the cultural history of Arctic hysteria and maps other strange emotions depicted and evoked in literature of the Finnish North The volume comprises seven case studies which range from the works of internationally renowned authors such as Rosa Liksom Emmi Itäranta and Tove Jansson to the affectively controversial and provocative writings of Timo K Mukka Marko Tapio and Pentti Linkola Drawing from the study of the imagined North and theories and tools in the study of literature and emotions the analyses show how such moods as melancholia ecstasy or a peculiar sense of November are generated in texts and how literary emotions entangle with the Northern environment they depict By focusing on the imagined North in Finnish modernism and contemporary literature the authors offer original views on experiences of late modernity merging with the changing Northern environment in the age of the Anthropocene

Shattering Minds Anna Ovaska, 2023-09-07 This study offers a new perspective on unusual and unsettling experiences that are often interpreted as mental illnesses and on the techniques through which literary representations invite readerly responses and engagement The book examines how four Finnish modernist writers Helvi Hämäläinen Jorma Korpela Timo K Mukka and Maria Vaara construct experiences of shattering and distress as bodily experiences that are embedded in the social and material world and entangled with social and cultural norms that govern subjectivity gender and sexuality Drawing on narrative theory theories of embodied cognition phenomenology of illness and feminist theory the analyses show how literary works can invite readers to respond emotionally and to reflect on our views of the human mind and its interaction with the world The book sheds light on the fictional portrayals and techniques of representation and on the ethics of narrating and reading about painful experiences It also illuminates the ways the mind body consciousness and mental distress are discussed in Finnish modernist literature and situates the texts in the international modernist tradition

A History of Finland's Literature George C. Schoolfield, 1998-01-01 The literature of Finland is bilingual with lively and extensive traditions in both Finnish and Swedish This history covers both literary traditions in detail The volume's first section on Finnish language literature consists of a series of connected chapters by leading authorities within the field It opens with a consideration of the folk literature in Finnish that flourished during the Middle Ages and then examines the more recent history of Finnish language literature with special emphasis placed on writings from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The second part of the book provides an examination of Finland's Swedish language literature from the late fifteenth century through the early nineteenth century Subsequent chapters trace developments in Finland's Swedish language literature during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries A survey of children's literature from both the Finnish and Swedish language traditions concludes this exceptionally thorough volume
