

The way up to heaven

11 Answer the following questions.

- What sufferings Forest saw with her husband at the beginning of the story?
- How did their husband spend his money in the following morning?
- What crucial decision did she finally make?
- What were Mrs. Foster's feelings at the end of the story?

12 Choose the following words.

- When Mrs Foster first had went to live in Forest Street, Mrs Foster and when she was going there together?
- Do you sympathize or not with Mrs Foster? Do you think she should go for good? Do you understand her when she had her husband dead?
- Is the ending of the story good or not very sad? Give reasons.

Writing

- Write a short letter (100 words) from Mrs Foster to her daughter in Paris. Describe what happened when she returned home and describe her plans for the future.

of On the High Line published to coincide with the fifteenth anniversary of the park's opening remains the definitive guide to the park that transformed an entire neighborhood and became an inspiration to cities around the globe. In short entries organized by roughly two city block sections the guide provides rich details about everything in view on both sides of the park. Illustrated with more than 110 black and white photographs and horticulture and important industries and technological innovations that developed in the neighborhoods the park traverses from book publishing and food distribution to the introduction of cold storage and the development of radar the elevator and talking movies. Updated to include newly opened sections of the park this edition also features a new conversation pertaining to the more controversial side of the High Line's story and how it became a poster child for the most grievous manifestations of gentrification and inequity in public spaces. Author Annik LaFarge provides a frank discussion on how the park's leadership created a platform for discussing these issues and for advising other projects on how to work more inclusively and from a social justice and equity perspective. On the High Line serves as an educated travel companion someone invisibly perched on a visitor's shoulder who can answer every question including what was here before moving back in time through the early 20th century the Industrial Revolution and the colonial and pre-European times when this stretch of what we call Manhattan was home to the Lenape people and much of it was covered by the waters of the Hudson River.
