Forest Products Journal, 1990 Forest Products Exports Mary E. Lassanyi, 1991 Forest Resource Economics And Policy Research Paul V. Ellefson, 2019-04-12 This book reviews the status of discipline wide activity in forest economics and policy research especially investment levels past and current program emphasis program planning and organizational involvement It defines strategic directions for forest economics and policy research Development and Status of Arkansas' Primary Forest Products and Industry Dennis M. May, 1990 Innovation in the Forest Products Industry Abra Hovgaard, Eric Hansen, Joseph Roos, 2005 Because there is a lack of innovation research in the forest products industry and innovative activities in the industry are not well documented this study attempted to fill that void The objectives of this study were to understand the process and definition of innovation in the forest products industry identify the constraints on innovative activities identify resources that would improve innovation in forest products companies compare the innovation environments in Alaska and Oregon and provide a benchmark study for innovation in the forest products industry This study revealed that there are several aspects of innovation in the forest products industry In addition the innovation process is a combination of semiformal development stages trial and error intuition and luck A variety of factors constrained companies from being more innovative including government regulations shipping and labor costs lack of cash flow raw material characteristics marketing expertise and raw material supply There do not appear to be any resources that would be helpful to forest products companies at least none that the interviewed companies could recommend Offering companies the chance to exchange ideas and network is the most valuable resource available The innovation environments in Alaska and Oregon are somewhat similar yet different in the marketing tactics employed and the techniques used to obtain market information Furthermore the type of innovation projects that each region focuses on differs as does the actual process used to develop innovations Future research should focus on completing a quantitative component to this study developing short courses or 1 day seminars identifying factors that contribute to innovation success and failure investigating why the forest products industry is not innovative by nature and exploring the external acquisition of innovation in the forest products industry Forest Products Exports 1979-1987 Mary E. Lassanyi, 1988 General Technical Report FPL, 1978
