What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges

Against All Odds Dr. Simon George Taukeni, 2017-01-12 This is a true life story of a poor ordinary orphan and a Namibian refugee boy who did extraordinary things in a normal but amazing way It is the life of a poor village boy who did supernatural things with a simple smile

Teaching and Learning Difficult Histories in International Contexts Terrie Epstein, Carla Peck, 2017-08-07 Grounded in a critical sociocultural approach this volume examines issues associated with teaching and learning difficult histories in international contexts Defined as representations of past violence and oppression difficult histories are contested and can evoke emotional often painful responses in the present Teaching and learning these histories is contentious yet necessary for increased dialogue within conflict ridden societies reconciliation in post conflict societies and greater social cohesion in long standing democratic nations Focusing on locations and populations across the globe chapter authors investigate how key themes including culture identity collective memory emotion and multi perspectivity historical consciousness distance and amnesia inform the teaching and learning of difficult histories

The Street Is My Pulpit Mwenda Ntarangwi, 2016-05-15 To some Christianity and hip hop seem antithetical Not so in Kenya There the music of Julius Owino aka Juliani blends faith and beats into a potent hip hop gospel aimed at a youth culture hungry for answers spiritual material and otherwise Mwenda Ntarangwi explores the Kenyan hip hop scene through the lens of Juliani s life and career A born again Christian Juliani produces work highlighting the tensions between hip hop s forceful self expression and a pious approach to public life even while contesting the basic presumptions of both In The Street Is My Pulpit Ntarangwi forges an uncommon collaboration with his subject that offers insights into Juliani s art and goals even as Ntarangwi explores his own religious experience and subjective identity as an ethnographer What emerges is an original contribution to the scholarship on hip hop s global impact and a passionate study of the music s role in shaping new ways of being Christian in Africa Taking Care of the Future Oliver Pattenden,2018-03-06 Taking Care of the Future examines the moral dimensions and transformative capacities of education and humanitarianism through an intimate portrayal of learners volunteers donors and educators at a special needs school in South Africa and a partnering UK based charity Drawing on his professional experience of inclusive education in London Oliver Pattenden investigates how systems of schooling regularly exclude and mishandle marginalized populations particularly exploring how street kids and poverty afflicted young South Africans experience these dynamics as they attempt to fashion their futures By unpacking the ethical terrains of fundraising voluntourism Christian benevolence human rights colonial legacies and the post apartheid transition Pattenden analyzes how political economic and social aspects of intervention materialize to transform the lives of all those involved The Globalization of Internationalization Hans de Wit,Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila,Elspeth Jones,Nico Jooste,2017-01-20 The Globalization of Internationalization is a timely text which gives voice to emerging perspectives as an increasing range of countries engage in the process of internationalization The pressure to internationalize cannot be ignored by institutions anywhere in today s world yet the dominant paradigms in the conception of internationalization traditionally come from the English speaking world and Western Europe This book sets out to offer alternative viewpoints Different dimensions and interpretations of internationalization in countries and regions whose perspectives have received little attention to date provide food for thought and help to broaden understanding of its application in alternative contexts Combining diverse perspectives from around the world this new volume in the Internationalization in Higher Education series seeks answers to key questions such as What are the main characteristics of internationalization viewed from different cultural and regional backgrounds and how do they differ from traditional models such as in Western Europe North America and Australasia What issues in different global contexts have an impact on internationalization processes What are the key challenges and obstacles encountered in developing innovative and non traditional models of internationalization With contributions from world renowned international authors and perspectives from countries and contexts seen only rarely in the literature The Globalization of Internationalization offers distinctive overviews and insights while exploring a range of thematic and regional issues arising from these considerations This will be essential reading both as an academic resource and a practical manual for university leaders academics higher education policy advisers and non governmental organizations which fund higher education Decoloniality, Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney,Pam Christie,2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the

monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguaging It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces Injectable Smart Hydrogels for Biomedical Applications Jagan Mohan Dodda,Nureddin Ashammakhi,Emmanuel Rotimi Sadiku,2024-07-19

Injectable smart hydrogels possess various properties that enable the development of new minimally invasive approaches to avoid problems associated with traditional implants Researchers in academia and industry will learn the range of synthetic strategies used to produce this emerging class of biomaterials Clinicians will also be inspired by the range of applications demonstrated to advance surgical procedures The editors have brought together a global authorship to ensure that this book presents the state of the art in materials engineering and therapeutics Their knowledge and experience will help the reader develop better knowledge of the field and inspire new innovations that cover a range of areas such as regenerative medicine cancer therapy and drug delivery Philosophies of Multiculturalism Luis Cordeiro-Rodrigues,Marko Simendic,2016-09-01

This edited collection offers a comparative approach to the topic of multiculturalism including different authors with contrasting arguments from different philosophical traditions and ideologies It puts together perspectives that have been largely neglected as valid normative ways to address the political and moral questions that arise from the coexistence of different cultures in the same geographical space The essays in this volume cover both historical perspectives taking in the work of Hobbes Tocqueville and Nietzsche among others and contemporary Eastern and Western approaches including Marxism anarchism Islam Daoism Indian and African philosophies Financial inclusion Munacinga C. Simatele,2022-02-15 Financial inclusion has been noted as a key driver of poverty alleviation and growth Yet most of the scholarly work that exists lacks a comprehensive discussion of how the poor interact with financial services and the channels through which such services can affect their livelihoods This book offers researchers who focus on financial inclusion and African economies a one stop resource for understanding the channels of transmission for financial inclusion as well as an application of these channels through original country specific empirical papers The book provides a back to basics presentation of the transmission of financial services to growth and poverty This theoretical discussion is complemented by an empirical presentation of the various services used by the poor with a focus on Africa Case studies of financial inclusion in six African countries cover a broad range of topics most important to African countries and highlight the unique African setting These empirical papers provide important learning points Firstly hybrid financial institutions such as cooperative financial institutions and financial social entrepreneurs are the best way to increase financial inclusion in Africa They provide important vehicles to circumvent the restrictive and exclusive bank based financial markets typical of African economies

Secondly digital finance is a potent tool for improving financial access and usage in Africa and its impact on poverty operates through both traditional and nontraditional financial instruments Thirdly investment in infrastructure which supports complementary markets is critical and is likely to have a greater effect on credit rationing than direct provision of credit to small businesses

Urban and Maritime Transport XXVII G. Passerini, S. Ricci, 2021-09-01 Better urban transport systems and the need for a healthier environment are continuous requirements that create a fertile atmosphere for original ideas innovative approaches and applications of advanced technologies their tests and evaluations in practice Moreover there is a growing need for integration with IT systems and applications to improve safety and efficiency Meanwhile the substantial growth of maritime shipping has resulted in large transported quantities around the world creating a demand for innovative solutions for ports and fleets The apparently parallel topics of Urban Transport and Maritime Transport meet in the transport and environmental management of coastal cities both being affected positively and negatively by landslide and seaside traffic Maritime Transport is highly interconnected with rail road and air services as well as inland waterways Each of these must therefore operate complimentary of one another to maximise efficiency and respond rapidly to variable economic and political contingencies The variety of topics covered in this volume reflects the complex interaction of transport systems with their environment and the need to establish integrated strategies The goal is to arrive at optimal socio economic solutions while reducing the negative environmental impacts of transportation systems typically by interdisciplinary approaches

Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa Fred M. Hayward, 2020-03-01 Drawing on over fifty years of on the ground experience Fred M Hayward s Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa analyzes change processes in higher education in eight Asian and African countries The twelve cases range from the push to upgrade and transform higher education in Afghanistan in the midst of a war to the successful struggle against apartheid in South African institutions as well as thwarted efforts in Sierra Leone and Madagascar Providing both practical lessons learned and hope for communities globally Hayward demonstrates that higher education change and even transformation which is more fundamental and structural can occur even in the most difficult environments Successful transformation requires well crafted strategic and budget plans with careful implementation monitoring and effective leadership at multiple levels Yet also critical are a commitment to human development a desire for freedom and belief in democracy and recognition that high quality higher education is essential to national development

A Scholarship of Doctoral Education Petro du Preez, 2018-11-19 This edited collection is cohesive by a focus on becoming becoming a doctoral student becoming a researcher becoming an academic and becoming a supervisor This journey of becoming takes us from pre enrolment in a doctoral programme through the many phases of candidature and into the post doctoral environment Both advancing theory and providing very practical examples this book is of immense value to doctoral students and academics not only in South Africa for whom it should be a mandatory read but also for doctoral education researchers doctoral students and supervisors worldwide as the themes covered extend well beyond the borders of South Africa Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly Vermicomposting for Sustainable Food Systems in Africa Hupenyu Allan Mupambwa, Lydia Ndinela Horn, Pearson Nyari Stephano Mnkeni, 2023-03-01 This edited book collates the research done mainly in Africa on vermicomposting and related technologies that can assist African smallholder farmers in making nutrient rich organic fertilizers from their animal and crop residue wastes Information on the development of organic sources of liquid fertilizer development for hydroponics is also presented The book presents research findings on vermicomposting in a simplified way that will allow farmers and extension workers to adopt the indicated technologies The book also covers critical aspects of standardization of vermicompost preparation earthworm biology nutrient enrichment of composts and organic liquid fertilizer production Vermicomposting is a technology that employs earthworms to enhance the biodegradation and fertilizer value of organic wastes The earthworms optimize the biodegradation ecosystem during composting resulting in a final nutrient rich product with more recalcitrant forms of carbon and much lower levels of veterinary antibiotics and their metabolites Vermicompost as an organic fertilizer is highly preferred over other forms of soil enhancers A lot of research has been done on vermicompost and related activities in Africa but remain scattered across various publications The book is an invaluable source of information for farmers especially those practicing organic crop production vermicomposting researchers as well as extension workers
