Robertson, 2013-06-10 Illustrated in vivid colour 7 Generations A Plains Cree Saga is an epic story that follows one Indigenous family over three centuries and seven generations This compiled edition was originally published as a series of four graphic novels Stone Scars Ends Begins and The Pact Stone introduces Edwin a young man who must discover his family s past if he is to have any future Edwin learns of his ancestor Stone a Plains Cree warrior who came of age in the early 19th century When Stone s older brother is tragically killed during a Blackfoot raid he must overcome his grief to avenge his brother s death In Scars the story of White Cloud Edwin s ancestor is set against the smallpox epidemic of 1870 1871 After witnessing the death of his family one by one White Cloud must summon the strength to find a new home and deliver himself from the terrible disease In Ends Begins readers learn about Edwin s father James and his experiences in a residential school In 1964 two brothers are taken from the warm and loving care of their grandparents and spirited away to a residential school When James discovers the anguish that his little brother is living under it leads to unspeakable tragedy In The Pact the guilt and loss of James s residential school experiences follow him into adulthood and his life spirals out of control Edwin mired in the desolation of his fatherless childhood struggles to heal As James navigates his own healing he realizes somehow he must save his son s life as well as his own Find ideas for using this book in your classroom in the FREE Teacher s Guide for 7 Generations Graphic Indigeneity Frederick Luis Aldama, 2020-06-04 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Comics Studies Society Prize for Edited Book Collection Contributions by Joshua T Anderson Chad A Barbour Susan Bernardin Mike Borkent Jeremy M Carnes Philip Cass Jordan Clapper James J Donahue Dennin Ellis Jessica Fontaine Jonathan Ford Lee Francis IV Enrique Garc a Javier Garc a Liendo Brenna Clarke Gray Brian Montes Arij Ouweneel Kevin Patrick Candida Rifkind Jessica Rutherford and Jorge Santos Cultural works by and about Indigenous identities histories and experiences circulate far and wide However not all films animation television shows and comic books lead to a nuanced understanding of Indigenous realities Acclaimed comics

scholar Frederick Luis Aldama shines light on how mainstream comics have clumsily distilled and reconstructed Indigenous identities and experiences He and contributors emphasize how Indigenous comic artists are themselves clearing new visual verbal narrative spaces for articulating more complex histories cultures experiences and narratives of self To that end Aldama brings together scholarship that explores both the representation and misrepresentation of Indigenous subjects and experiences as well as research that analyzes and highlights the extraordinary work of Indigenous comic artists Among others the book examines Daniel Parada s Zotz Puerto Rican comics Turey el Ta no and La Borinque a and Moonshot The Indigenous Comics Collection This volume s wide armed embrace of comics by and about Indigenous peoples of the Americas and Australasia is a first step to understanding how the histories of colonial and imperial domination connect the violent wounds that still haunt across continents Aldama and contributors resound this message Indigeneity in comics is an important powerful force within our visual verbal narrative arts writ large Literatures, Communities, and Learning

Aubrey Jean Hanson, 2020-06-23 Literatures Communities and Learning Conversations with Indigenous Writers gathers nine conversations with Indigenous writers about the relationship between Indigenous literatures and learning and how their writing relates to communities Relevant reflexive and critical these conversations explore the pressing topic of Indigenous writings and its importance to the well being of Indigenous Peoples and to Canadian education It offers readers a chance to listen to authors perspectives in their own words This book presents conversations shared with nine Indigenous writers in what is now Canada Tenille Campbell Warren Cariou Marilyn Dumont Daniel Heath Justice Lee Maracle Sharron Proulx Turner David Alexander Robertson Richard Van Camp and Katherena Vermette Influenced by generations of colonization surrounded by discourses of Indigenization reconciliation appropriation and representation and swept up in the rapid growth of Indigenous publishing and Indigenous literary studies these writers have thought a great deal about their work Each conversation is a nuanced examination of one writer s concerns critiques and craft In their own ways these writers are navigating the beautiful challenge of storying their communities within politically charged terrain This book considers the pedagogical dimensions of stories serving as an Indigenous literary and education project The Canadian Alternative

Dominick Grace, Eric Hoffman, 2017-11-20 Contributions by Jordan Bolay Ian Brodie Jocelyn Sakal Froese Dominick Grace Eric Hoffman Paddy Johnston Ivan Kocmarek Jessica Langston Judith Leggatt Daniel Marrone Mark J McLaughlin Joan Ormrod Laura A Pearson Annick Pellegrin Mihaela Precup Jason Sacks and Ruth Ellen St Onge This overview of the history of Canadian comics explores acclaimed as well as unfamiliar artists Contributors look at the myriad ways that English language Francophone Indigenous and queer Canadian comics and cartoonists pose alternatives to American comics to dominant perceptions even to gender and racial categories In contrast to the United States melting pot Canada has been understood to comprise a social cultural and ethnic mosaic with distinct cultural variation as part of its identity This volume reveals differences that often reflect in highly regional and localized comics such as Paul MacKinnon s Cape Breton specific Old

Trout Funnies Michel Rabagliati's Montreal based Paul comics and Kurt Martell and Christopher Merkley's Thunder Bay specific zombie apocalypse The collection also considers some of the conventionally alternative cartoonists namely Seth Dave Sim and Chester Brown It offers alternate views of the diverse and engaging work of two very different Canadian cartoonists who bring their own alternatives into play Jeff Lemire in his bridging of Canadian US and mainstream alternative sensibilities and Nina Bunjevack in her own blending of realism and fantasy as well as of insider outsider status Despite an upsurge in research on Canadian comics there is still remarkably little written about most major and all minor Canadian cartoonists This volume provides insight into some of the lesser known Canadian alternatives still awaiting full exploration Righting

Canada's Wrongs: Residential Schools Melanie Florence, 2015-12-15 Canada's residential school system for aboriginal young people is now recognized as a grievous historic wrong committed against First Nations Metis and Inuit peoples This book documents this subject in a format that will give all young people access to this painful part of Canadian history In 1857 the Gradual Civilization Act was passed by the Legislature of the Province of Canada with the aim of assimilating First Nations people In 1879 Prime Minister Sir John A Macdonald commissioned the Report on Industrial Schools for Indians and Half Breeds This report led to native residential schools across Canada First Nations and Inuit children aged seven to fifteen years old were taken from their families sometimes by force and sent to residential schools where they were made to abandon their culture They were dressed in uniforms their hair was cut they were forbidden to speak their native language and they were often subjected to physical and psychological abuse The schools were run by the churches and funded by the federal government About 150 000 aboriginal children went to 130 residential schools across Canada The last federally funded residential school closed in 1996 in Saskatchewan The horrors that many children endured at residential schools did not go away It took decades for people to speak out but with the support of the Assembly of First Nations and Inuit organizations former residential school students took the federal government and the churches to court Their cases led to the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement the largest class action settlement in Canadian history In 2008 Prime Minister Harper formally apologized to former native residential school students for the atrocities they suffered and the role the government played in setting up the school system The agreement included the Truth and Reconciliation Commission which has since worked to document this experience and toward reconciliation Through historical photographs documents and first person narratives from First Nations Inuit and Metis people who survived residential schools this book offers an account of the injustice of this period in Canadian history It documents how this official racism was confronted and finally acknowledged Strangers David A.
