Genocide And Mass Violence Memory Symptom And Recovery:

Genocide and Mass Violence Devon E. Hinton, Alexander L. Hinton, 2014-11-10 What are the legacies of genocide and mass violence for individuals and the social worlds in which they live and what are the local processes of recovery Genocide and Mass Violence aims to examine from a cross cultural perspective the effects of mass trauma on multiple levels of a group or society and the recovery processes and sources of resilience How do particular individuals recall the trauma How do ongoing reconciliation processes and collective representations of the trauma impact the group How does the trauma persist in symptoms How are the effects of trauma transmitted across generations in memories rituals symptoms and interpersonal processes What are local healing resources that aid recovery To address these issues this book brings into conversation psychological and medical anthropologists psychiatrists psychologists and historians The theoretical implications of the chapters are examined in detail using several analytic frameworks Genocide and Mass Violence Devon E.

Hinton, Alexander L. Hinton, 2015 Genocide and Mass Violence brings together a unique mix of anthropologists psychiatrists psychologists and historians to examine the effects of mass trauma Trauma and Recovery in Early North African Christianity

Scott Harrower, 2024-04-22 Powerful religious elements for living in the aftermath of trauma are embedded within North African Christian hagiographies The texts of 1 The Passion of Perpetua and Felicity 2 The Account of Montanus Lucius and their Companions and 3 The Life of Cyprian of Carthage are stories that offered post traumatic pathways to recovery for its historical readership These recovery oriented beliefs and behaviors promoted positive religious coping strategies that revolved around a sense of safety re establishing community relationships an integrated sense of self and a hopeful story beyond trauma This book vividly demonstrates that hagiographies played a vital therapeutic role in helping early Christian trauma survivors recover and flourish in the aftermath of disastrous persecutions Empire, Ideology, Mass

Violence: The Long 20th Century in Comparative Perspective Tobias Hof, 2016-09-20 Despite the vast literature on genocide and mass violence during the 19th and 20th century one question still haunts historians and the wider public alike Why do ordinary men use extreme violence against fellow human beings Empire Ideology Violence The Long 20th Century in Comparative Perspective offers innovative methods and interdisciplinary approaches to the study of extreme violence in the long 20th century By looking at case studies from different regions and time periods the contributors shed more light on the social political and economic contexts in which humans are inclined to use extreme forms of violence Topics in the volume include case studies from Asia Africa Europe the Ottoman Empire and the Nazi Third Reich Critical Perspectives on

African Genocide Alfred Frankowski, Jeanine Ntihirageza, Chielozona Eze, 2021-02-23 Genocide has become a part of the contemporary global expression of political violence After all every continent has had its genocide but genocide in Africa and the African diaspora is distinctly different from those in Europe or the West This text approaches genocide from within the context of Africa and the African diaspora to examine political and philosophical after effects of global colonialism As genocidal state violence has become prominent through colonialism its appearance in Europe and the West have developed sharply against how it appears in colonized spaces within the African diaspora This text argues that such a difference in orientation is needed to develop new concepts critical approaches and perspectives on the intersections between colonialism political violence and anti black politics as a way of critically understanding global genocide and the presence of continual genocidal violence

Biosocial Worlds Jens Seeberg, Andreas Roepstorff, Lotte Meinert, 2020-09-29 Biosocial Worlds presents state of the art contributions to anthropological reflections on the porous boundaries between human and non human life biosocial worlds Based on changing understandings of biology and the social it explores what it means to be human in these worlds Growing separation of scientific disciplines for more than a century has maintained a separation of the natural and the social that has created a space for projections between the two Such projections carry a directional causality and so constitute powerful means to establish discursive authority While arguing against the separation of the biological and the social in the study of human and non human life it remains important to unfold the consequences of their discursive separation Based on examples from Botswana Denmark Mexico the Netherlands Uganda the UK and USA the volume explores what has been created in the space between the social and the natural with a view to rethink the biosocial Health topics in the book include diabetes trauma cancer HIV tuberculosis prevention of neonatal disease and wider issues of epigenetics Many of the chapters engage with constructions of health and disease in a wide range of environments and engage with analysis of the concept of environment Anthropological reflection and ethnographic case studies explore how health and environment are entangled in ways that move their relation beyond interdependence to one of inseparability The subtitle of this volume captures these insights through the concept of health environment seeking to move the engagement of anthropology and biology beyond deterministic projections

Interdisciplinary Handbook of Trauma and Culture Yochai Ataria, David Gurevitz, Haviva Pedaya, Yuval Neria, 2016-09-15 This lofty volume analyzes a circular cultural relationship not only how trauma is reflected in cultural processes and products but also how trauma itself acts as a critical shaper of literature the visual and performing arts architecture and religion and mythmaking The political power of trauma is seen through US Israeli and Japanese art forms as they reflect varied roles of perpetrator victim and witness Traumatic complexities are traced from spirituality to movement philosophy to trauma theory And essays on authors such as Kafka Plath and Cormac McCarthy examine how narrative can blur the boundaries of personal and collective experience Among the topics covered Television a traumatic culture From Hiroshima to Fukushima comics and animation as subversive agents of memory in Japan The death of the witness in the era of testimony Primo Levi and Georges Perec Sigmund Freud s Moses and Monotheism and the possibility of writing a traumatic history of religion Placing collective trauma within its social context the case of the 9 11 attacks Killing the killer rampage and gun rights as a syndrome This volume appeals to multiple readerships including researchers and clinicians sociologists anthropologists historians and media researchers Trauma

Tracing Silences Ana Dragojlovic, Annemarie Samuels, 2023-06-06 Silence is crucial to our social world Responding to the growing scholarly interest in social sciences and humanities for more in depth engagements with social silence this book explores what it means to trace silences and to include traces of silences in our scholarly representations What qualifies as silence and how does it relate to articulation to voice visibility and representation How can silences be sensed and experienced viscerally as well as narratively And how do we think with and interpret silences in the face of potential unknowability Grounded in ethnographic research in the Netherlands Israel Turkey China and Indonesia the chapters all contribute to a theorization of silence that embraces multivocality unintelligibility and uncertainty of interpretation As a collection of cutting edge scholarly work at the intersection of anthropology and history Tracing Silences argues for an in depth engagement with the unspeakable and unspoken through a range of modes and methods and in the historical social and political ways in which they emerge and are enacted in the particularities of people s lives This book will be of interest to scholars and students of history anthropology sociology political science and archival studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of History and Anthropology Crafting Masculine Selves Andrea Chioyenda,2020 Based on five years of ethnographic research among Pashtun men in Afghanistan this book presents a psychological study of adjustment and adaptation or lack thereof to cultural norms and rules of masculinity and of how social expectations impact the subjectivity and inner lives of the protagonists It chronicles Afghan Pashtun men s private conflicts contradictions and ambivalences just as much as it shows how three decades of continuous conflict have exacerbated and deepened the place and role of violence in Pashtun society where what was considerate legitimate and justifiable behavior in the battlefield has spilled over into everyday life among non combatants Performing Trauma in Central Africa Laura

Edmondson,2018-03-26 An outstanding addition to the literature on theatre and performance in situations of conflict and post conflict New Theatre Quarterly What are the stakes of cultural production in a time of war How is artistic expression prone to manipulation by the state and international humanitarian organizations In the charged political terrain of post genocide Rwanda post civil war Uganda and recent violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo Laura Edmondson explores performance through the lens of empire Instead of celebrating theatre productions as expression of cultural agency and resilience Edmondson traces their humanitarian imperatives to a place where global narratives of violence take precedence over local traditions and audiences Working at the intersection of performance and trauma Edmondson reveals how artists and cultural workers manipulate narratives in the shadow of empire and how empire in turn infiltrates creative capacities

Bomb Children Leah Zani,2019-08-16 Half a century after the CIA s Secret War in Laos the largest bombing campaign in history explosive remnants of war continue to be part of people s everyday lives In Bomb Children Leah Zani offers a perceptive analysis of the long term often subtle and unintended effects of massive air warfare Zani traces the sociocultural impact of cluster submunitions known in Laos as bomb children through stories of explosives clearance technicians and others living and working in these old air strike zones Zani presents her ethnography alongside poetry written in the field crafting a startlingly beautiful analysis of state terror authoritarian revival rapid development and ecological contamination In so doing she proposes that postwar zones are their own cultural and area studies offering new ways to understand the parallel relationship between ongoing war violence and postwar revival Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis Farshid

Kazemi,2024-12-30 Combining Lacanian psychoanalytic theory Iranian Shi ite thought and Islamicate sexualities Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis The Interpreter of Desires provides a groundbreaking analysis of the logic of desire and sexuality in key films of contemporary Iranian cinema arguing that there is a profound albeit surprising correlation between post revolutionary Iranian cinema and psychoanalysis that has remained unthought Looking through the prism of psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi argues that censorship on the representation and expression of sexual desire in Iranian films has contrary to the desired effect produced a cinema of desire This book is the first to provide an analysis of the unconscious structure of desire and sexuality operative in post revolutionary Iranian cinema demonstrating that psychoanalytic literature is uniquely positioned to shed light on this aspect of film Kazemi uncovers the hidden libidinal economy of Iranian cinema by exposing the fact that despite the State censor's desire to suppress desire it has inadvertently inscribed desire in its formal structure The book offers a compelling and innovative examination of Iranian cinema through a psychoanalytic lens contributing significantly to the field of film studies Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to academics and scholars of film studies psychoanalytic studies Lacanian theory film theory Iranian cinema global cinema Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies

Clinical Psychology Stefan G. Hofmann, 2017-10-23 The first book to offer a truly global perspective on the theory and practice of clinical psychology While clinical psychology is practiced the world over up to now there has been no text devoted to examining it within a global context The first book of its kind Clinical Psychology A Global Perspective brings together contributions from clinicians and scholars around the world to share their insights and observations on the theory and practice of clinical psychology Due partly to language barriers and entrenched cultural biases there is little cultural cross pollination within the field of clinical psychology In fact most of the popular texts were written for English speaking European and Anglo American audiences and translated for other countries As a result most psychologists are unaware of how their profession is conceptualized and practiced in different regions or how their own practices can be enriched by knowledge of the theories and modalities predominant among colleagues in other parts of the world This book represents an important first step toward rectifying that state of affairs Explores key differences and similarities in how clinical psychology is conceptualized and practiced with children adolescents and adults across different countries and cultures Addresses essential research methods clinical interviews psychometric testing neuropsychological assessments and dominant treatment modalities Follows a consistent format with each chapter focusing on a specific area of the practice of clinical psychology while integrating cultural issues within the discussion Includes coverage of how to adapt one's practice to the differing cultures of individual clients and how to work in multidisciplinary teams within a global context Clinical Psychology A Global Perspective is a valuable resource for students trainees and practicing psychologists especially those who work with ethnic minority groups or with interpreters It is also a must read for practitioners who are considering working internationally

The Encultured Brain Daniel H. Lende, Greg Downey, 2012-08-24 Basic concepts and case studies from an emerging field that investigates human capacities and pathologies at the intersection of brain and culture The brain and the nervous system are our most cultural organs Our nervous system is especially immature at birth our brain disproportionately small in relation to its adult size and open to cultural sculpting at multiple levels Recognizing this the new field of neuroanthropology places the brain at the center of discussions about human nature and culture Anthropology offers brain science more robust accounts of enculturation to explain observable difference in brain function neuroscience offers anthropology evidence of neuroplasticity's role in social and cultural dynamics This book provides a foundational text for neuroanthropology offering basic concepts and case studies at the intersection of brain and culture After an overview of the field and background information on recent research in biology a series of case studies demonstrate neuroanthropology in practice Contributors first focus on capabilities and skills including memory in medical practice skill acquisition in martial arts and the role of humor in coping with breast cancer treatment and recovery then report on problems and pathologies that range from post traumatic stress disorder among veterans to smoking as a part of college social life Contributors Mauro C Balieiro Kathryn Bouskill Rachel S Brezis Benjamin Campbell Greg Downey Jos Ernesto dos Santos William W Dressler Erin P Finley Agust n Fuentes M Cameron Hay Daniel H Lende Katherine C MacKinnon Katja Pettinen Peter G Stromberg Traumatic Pasts in Asia Mark S. Micale, Hans Pols, 2021-09-17 In the early twenty first century trauma is seemingly everywhere whether as experience diagnosis concept or buzzword Yet even as many scholars consider trauma to be constitutive of psychological modernity or the post Enlightenment human condition historical research on the topic has overwhelmingly focused on cases such as World War I or the Holocaust in which Western experiences and actors are foregrounded There remains an urgent need to incorporate the methods and insights of recent historical trauma research into a truly global perspective The chapters in Traumatic Pasts in Asia make just such an intervention extending Euro American paradigms of traumatic experience to new sites of world historical suffering and in the process exploring how these new domains of research inform and enrich earlier scholarship
