Eine gnadenlose Jagd auf die beiden beginnt.      Historicizing the Uses of the Past Helle Bjerg, Claudia Lenz, Erik Thorstensen, 2014-04-09 This book presents new developments in Scandinavian memory cultures related to World War II and the Holocaust by combining this focus with the perspective of history didactics. The theoretical framework of historical consciousness offers an approach linking individual and collective uses and re-uses of the past to the question how history can and should be taught. It also offers some examples of good practice in this field. The book promotes a teaching practice which in taking the social constructivist notions of historical consciousness as a starting point can contribute to self-reflecting and critical thinking being fundamental for any democratic political culture.      Our Nazis Petra Rau, 2013-05-31 Focusing particularly on the British context, this study offers the first analysis of contemporary popular and literary fiction, film, TV and art exhibitions about Nazis and Nazism.      Pan-Africanism: Political Philosophy and Socio-Economic Anthropology for African Liberation and Governance Kini-Yen Kinni, 2015-09-04 This Book is the outcome of a long project begun thirty years ago. It is a book on the makings of pan Africanism through the predicaments of being black in a world dominated by being white. The book is a tribute and celebration of the efforts of the African American and African Caribbean Diaspora who took the initiative and the audacity to fight and liberate themselves from the shackles of slavery. It is also a celebration of those Africans who in their own way carried the torch of inspiration and resilience to save and reconstruct the Free Humanism of Africa. As a story of the rise from the shackles of slavery and poverty to the summit of Victors of their Renaissance, Identity and Self Determination as a People, the book is the story of African refusal to celebrate victimhood. The book also situates women as central actors in the Pan African project which is often presented as an exclusively masculine endeavour. It introduces a balanced gender approach and diagnosis of the Women actors of Pan Africanism which was very much lacking. The problem of balkanisation of Africa on post colonial affiliations and colonial linguistic lines has taken its toll on Africa's building of its common identity and personality. The result is that Africans are more remote to each other in their pigeon hole nation states which put more restrictions for African inter mobility coupled by education and cultural affiliations, the communication and transportation and trading networks which are still tied more to their colonial masters than among themselves. This book looks into the problem of the new wave of Pan Africanism and what strategies that can be proposed for a more participatory Pan Africanism inspired by the everyday realities of African masses at home and in the diaspora. This book is the first book of its kind that gives a comprehensive and multidimensional coverage.

of Pan Africanism It is a very timely and vital compendium      Learning and Experiencing Cryptography with CrypTool and SageMath Bernhard Esslinger,2023-12-31 This book provides a broad overview of cryptography and enables cryptography for trying out It emphasizes the connections between theory and practice focuses on RSA for introducing number theory and PKI and links the theory to the most current recommendations from NIST and BSI The book also enables readers to directly try out the results with existing tools available as open source It is different from all existing books because it shows very concretely how to execute many procedures with different tools The target group could be self learners pupils and students but also developers and users in companies All code written with these open source tools is available The appendix describes in detail how to use these tools The main chapters are independent from one another At the end of most chapters you will find references and web links The sections have been enriched with many footnotes Within the footnotes you can see where the described functions can be called and tried within the different CrypTool versions within SageMath or within OpenSSL deeply disturbing history of the Rwandan genocide that takes the true measure of Rwandan head of state Paul Kagame Through unparalleled interviews with RPF defectors former soldiers and atrocity survivors supported by documents leaked from a UN court Judi Rever brings us the complete history of the Rwandan genocide Considered by the international community to be the saviours who ended the Hutu slaughter of innocent Tutsis Kagame and his rebel forces were also killing in quiet and in the dark as ruthlessly as the Hutu genocidaire were killing in daylight The reason why the larger world community hasn't recognized this truth Kagame and his top commanders effectively covered their tracks and post genocide rallied world guilt and played the heroes in order to attract funds to rebuild Rwanda and to maintain and extend the Tutsi sphere of influence in the region Judi Rever who has followed the story since 1997 has marshalled irrefutable evidence to show that Kagame's own troops shot down the presidential plane on April 6 1994 the act that put the match to the genocidal flame And she proves without a shadow of doubt that as Kagame and his forces slowly advanced on the capital of Kigali they were ethnically cleansing the country of Hutu men women and children in order that returning Tutsi settlers displaced since the early 60s would have homes and land This book is heartbreaking chilling and necessary Latin American Mystery

Melson, 2000 False Papers is the story of a Jewish family who survived the Holocaust by living in the open By sheer chutzpah and bravado Robert Melson's mother acquired the identity papers that would disguise herself her husband and her son for the duration of the war Always operating under the theory that one needed to be seen in order not to be noticed the Mendelsohns became not just ordinary Polish Catholics but the Zamojskis a Polish family of noble lineage Armed with their new lives and their new pasts the Count and Countess Zamojski and their son Count Bobi took shelter in the very shadow of the Nazi machine hiding day after day in plain sight behind a facade of elegant good manners and cultivated self assurance even arrogance You had to shout the Gestapo down or they would kill you Melson's father took advantage of his flawless German to build a lucrative business career while working for a German businessman of the Schindler type The Zamojskis acquired beautiful homes in the German quarter of Krakow and in Prague where they had maids and entertained Nazi officials Their masquerade enabled them to save not only themselves and their son but also an uncle and three Jewish women one of whom became part of the family False Papers is a candid sometimes even humorous account of a stylish family who dazzled the Nazis with flamboyant theatrics then gradually tragically fell apart after the war Particularly arresting is Melson himself who was just a child when his family embarked on their grand charade A resilient boy who had to negotiate bewildering shifts of identity now Catholic now Jewish now European aristocrat now penniless refugee who becomes an American college student Melson closes each chapter of his parents recollections with his childhood perceptions of the same events Against the totalizing flattening unrelenting Nazi behemoth Melson says I wished to pit our very bodies our quirky sexy funny wicked frail ordinary selves By balancing the adults maneuvering with the perspective of a child Melson crafts an account of the Holocaust that is at once poignant entertaining and troubling The Humanitarian Challenge Pat Gibbons, Hans-Joachim Heintze, 2015-03-16 This book includes contributions from academics practitioners and policy makers connected with the Network on Humanitarian Action NOHA an international association of universities that is committed to interdisciplinary education and research on humanitarian action Celebrating the twentieth anniversary of NOHA this book highlights some of the most pressing issues and challenges facing humanitarian action and explores potential solutions Drawing on theory and practice and spanning a broad range of subject matter the book explores the origin of key concepts such as human security reconciliation and resilience and questions their effectiveness in the pursuit of humanitarian ends It also charts current developments in the humanitarian system in particular in its legal and financial frameworks Issues relating to humanitarian stakeholders such as the role of the media and the protection of humanitarian workers are also addressed The contributions are influenced by a range of disciplines including anthropology political science legal studies and communications History and Story in the American Political Thriller Film Pablo Castrillo Maortua, 2023-08-29 In this book Pablo Castrillo Maortua analyzes the emergence of the political thriller in Hollywood at a time of angst and turmoil in the United States The Cold War the nuclear age domestic and international scandals and an increasingly deceitful political culture catalyzed a filmmaking current that would gradually develop its own narrative form and aesthetics into a new genre Castrillo Maortua explores the dramatic identity and design of the American political thriller tracking the close correlation between the evolution of the genre and the history of the United States from the Cuban Missile Crisis to the 9 11 terrorist attacks and the ensuing War on Terror Ultimately the author demonstrates how the American political thriller defies Hollywood conventions and cultural presuppositions with an entertaining yet critical view of the state of politics Scholars of film studies screenwriting and genre theory will find this book of particular interest The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey, 2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France s move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women s studies and history will find this book particularly useful A Companion to Adelson, 2005-08-19 Challenging the commonplace that suspends migrants between two worlds this study turns a refreshingly curious eye to complex cultural relations and literary novelties wrought by Turkish migration to Germany At interpretive and historic crossroads involving dialogue and storytelling genocide and taboo and capital and labour in the 1990s This book illuminates far reaching imaginative effects that literatures of migration can engender In critical conversation with Arjun Appadurai Seyla Benhabib Homi Bhabha Rey Chow Andreas Huyssen Dominick LaCapra Doris

Sommer and many others Adelson probes history and aesthetics as surprisingly twinned indices of national and global transformation at the millennial turn      The Dawn of a Discipline Frédéric Mégret, Immi Tallgren, 2020-09-24 The history of international criminal justice is often recounted as a series of institutional innovations But international criminal justice is also the product of intellectual developments made in its infancy This book examines the contributions of a dozen key figures in the early phase of international criminal justice focusing principally on the inter war years up to Nuremberg Where did these figures come from what did they have in common and what is left of their legacy What did they leave out How was international criminal justice framed by the concerns of their epoch and what intuitions have passed the test of time What does it mean to reimagine international criminal justice as emanating from individual intellectual narratives In interrogating this past in all its complexity one does not only do justice to it one can recover a sense of the manifold trajectories that international criminal justice could have taken      The Nation ,2005
