lot to be thankful for but something was still missing By all accounts my life should have gone along a predictable path but it didn't I didn't know how to make the necessary changes to have consistent inner peace and joy Do you ever find yourself in a place where it would appear you had it all together you are accomplished professionally personally and financially and you have the perfect house car etc but something is still missing I hope my book will be encouraging and can offer answers and solutions It's really very simple     Home Magazine ,1854     The Gentleman's Magazine ,1850     Spinning Wheels
