GEOFFREY HOUSEHOLD

"The behaviour of a rogue may fairly be described as individual, separation from its fellows appearing to increase both cunning and ferocity. These solitary beasts, exasperated by chronic pain or widowhood, are occasionally found among all the larger carnivores and graminivores, and are generally males, though, in the case of hipopotami, the wanton viciousness of old cows is not to be disregarded."

The Green Man Kingsley Amis,2013-05-07 The owner of a haunted country inn contends with death fatherhood romantic woes and alcoholism in this humorous rattling good ghost story from a Booker Prize winning author The New York Times Maurice Allington has reached middle age and is haunted by death As he says I honestly can t see why everybody who isn t a child everybody who s theoretically old enough to have understood what death means doesn t spend all his time thinking about it It s a pretty arresting thought He also happens to own and run a country inn that is haunted The Green Man opens as Maurice s father drops dead had he seen something in the room and continues as friends and family convene for the funeral Maurice s problems are many and increasing How to deal with his own declining health How to reach out to a teenage daughter who watches TV all the time How to get his best friend s wife in the sack How to find another drink And another And then there is always death The Green Man is a ghost story that hits a live nerve a very black comedy with an uncannily happy ending in other words Kingsley Amis at his best     A Very Old Man Italo Svevo,2022-08-30 A newly translated collection of fiction by the influential Italian modernist continuing on his landmark work Zeno s Conscience A Very Old Man collects five linked stories parts of an unfinished novel that the great Triestine Italo Svevo wrote at the end of his life after the international success of Zeno s Conscience in 1923 Here Svevo revisits with new vigor and agility themes that fascinated him from the start aging deceit and self deception as well as the fragility fecklessness and plain foolishness of the bourgeois paterfamilias even as memories of the recent terrible slaughter of World War I and the contemporary rise of Italian fascism also cast a shadow over the book's pages. It opens with The Contract in which Zeno's manager, the hardheaded young Olivi, expresses like the war veterans who were Mussolini's early followers a sense of entitlement born of fighting in the trenches. Zeno, by contrast, embodies the confusion and paralysis of the more decorous although sleepy way of life associated with the onetime Austro-Hungarian Empire which for so long ruled over Trieste but has now been swept away. As always, Svevo is attracted to the theme of how people fail to fit in. It is they, he suggests, who offer a recognizably human countenance in a world ravaged by the ambitions and fantasies of its true believers.
