Towards Good Order at Sea Thomas Mandrup, Francois Vre~, 2015-03-01 The problems originating from the resultant bad order at sea can be directly felt on land when smuggling terrorism and related criminal activities operate more or less unhindered The book provides an important mapping of the challenges preventing good order at sea off the African coast and East Africa in particular Rear Admiral N Wang Commandant Royal Danish Defence College     Neighbourhood Policy and the Construction of the European External Borders Filippo Celata, Raffaella Coletti, 2015-06-11 This book looks both backward and forward with regard to the European Union's political strategies towards its neighbouring countries By bringing together the perspectives of critical geopolitics policy studies and border studies it presents a comprehensive review of the European Neighbourhood Policy and how it impacts the ongoing construction of the EU's external frontiers Is the EU committed to promoting integration in a wider European space or is a fortress Europe emerging where the strengthening of internal cohesion is coupled with the militarisation of its external borders The book aims to problematize this question by showing how the EU's external policies are based on a mixture of openness and closure inclusion and exclusion cooperation and securitisation The European Neighbourhood Policy is a controversial strategy where regionalization and bordering homogenisations and differentiations centrifugal and centripetal forces proceed side by side in an explicit attempt to construct a selective mobile and fragmented border A specific focus is devoted to the diversity of geo strategies the EU is pursuing in its neighbouring countries and regions macro regional strategies and cross border cooperation initiatives as new scales of cooperation and the role of other global players     Love, Money, and Parenting Matthias Doepke, Fabrizio Zilibotti, 2020-11-03 Doepke and Zilibotti investigate how economic forces shape how parents raise their children They show that in countries with increasing economic inequality such as the United States parents push harder to ensure their children have a path to security and success Economics has transformed the hands off parenting of the 1960s and 70s into a frantic overscheduled activity Growing inequality has also resulted in an increasing parenting gap between richer and poorer families raising the disturbing prospect of diminished social mobility and fewer opportunities for children from disadvantaged backgrounds The authors discuss how investments in early childhood development and the design of education systems factor into the parenting equation and how economics can help shape policies that will contribute to the ideal of equal opportunity for all From publisher description     Survival October-November 2020: Pandemics and politics The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2023-04-21 Survival the IISS's bimonthly journal challenges conventional wisdom and brings fresh often controversial perspectives on strategic issues of the moment In this issue Adam Roberts explores pandemics and politics through the ages arguing that trust in leadership is essential in the struggle against infectious diseases Rebecca Barber and Sarah Teitt contend that ASEAN should take a more activist approach to the Rohingya crisis to salvage its credibility Greg Austin assesses the strategic implications of China's weak cyber defences

Renowned for his coverage of China's elite politics and leadership transitions veteran Sinologist Willy Lam has produced the first book length study in English of the rise of Xi Jinping General Secretary of the Chinese Communist Party CCP since November 2012 With rare insight Lam describes Xi's personal history and his fascination with quasi Maoist values the factional politics through which he ascended the configuration of power of the Fifth Generation leadership and the country's likely future directions under the charismatic princeling Despite an undistinguished career as a provincial administrator Xi has rapidly amassed more power than his predecessors He has overawed his rivals and shaken up the party state hierarchy by launching large scale anti corruption and rectification campaigns With a strong power base in the People's Liberation Army and a vision of China as an awakening lion Xi has been flexing China's military muscle in sovereignty rows with countries including Japan Vietnam and the Philippines while trying to undermine the influence of the United States in the Asia Pacific region While Xi is still fine tuning his art of governance his zero tolerance for dissent and his preoccupation with upholding the privileges of the red aristocracy and the CCP's status as perennial ruling party do not bode well for economic political or cultural reforms Lam takes a close look at Xi's ideological and political profile and considers how his conservative outlook might shape what the new strongman calls the Great Renaissance of the Chinese race
