In Defense of a Liberal Education Fareed Zakaria, 2015-03-30
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER CNN host and best selling author Fareed Zakaria argues for a renewed commitment to the world's most valuable educational tradition The liberal arts are under attack The governors of Florida Texas and North Carolina have all pledged that they will not spend taxpayer money subsidizing the liberal arts and they seem to have an unlikely ally in President Obama While at a General Electric plant in early 2014 Obama remarked I promise you folks can make a lot more potentially with skilled manufacturing or the trades than they might with an art history degree These messages are hitting home majors like English and history once very popular and highly respected are in steep decline I get it writes Fareed Zakaria recalling the atmosphere in India where he grew up which was even more obsessed with getting a skills based education However the CNN host and best selling author explains why this widely held view is mistaken and shortsighted Zakaria eloquently expounds on the virtues of a liberal arts education how to write clearly how to express yourself convincingly and how to think analytically He turns our leaders vocational argument on its head American routine manufacturing jobs continue to get automated or outsourced and specific vocational knowledge is often outdated within a few years Engineering is a great profession but key value added skills you will also need are creativity lateral thinking design communication storytelling and more than anything the ability to continually learn and enjoy learning precisely the gifts of a liberal education Zakaria argues that technology is transforming education opening up access to the best courses and classes in a vast variety of subjects for millions around the world We are at the dawn of the greatest expansion of the idea of a liberal education in human history

Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2019-05-23
Essays on the downsides dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life Choice The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls The link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help up the wall or drive them to suicide The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of robo-processes is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society The Machine Stops E M Forster s 1909 science fiction story tells the tale of a human society collapsing when the technology upon which it has become dependent fails Think of this volume as The Machine Starts a collection of unsettling ethnographic accounts of the rise of algorithmic governance A necessary and sobering call to arms Stefan Helmreich Massachusetts Institute of Technology Contributors include Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio
