

Harvest Time: Wheat or Tare?

In Matthew 13:24-30, Jesus teaches his followers the parable of the Wheat and Tares. In this parable, an enemy plants tares, or weeds, in a farmer's field of wheat. When the servants ask the farmer if they should uproot the tares, the farmer says to let them grow together. By doing this, the wheat won't be uprooted with the tares. The farmer then explains that when it is time to harvest, they should gather the tares and burn them and put the wheat in his barn.

Think about this parable. What if we thought of the wheat as good, loving thoughts and the tares as unhelpful, negative thoughts?

Now, let's harvest those thoughts! Read examples of thoughts on the stems below. Color in the stems with good, loving thoughts. Leave the unhelpful, negative thoughts white.

The Rabbinic Parables and Jesus the Parable Teller

David Flusser,2024-04-09 First published in German as Die rabbinischen Gleichnisse und der Gleichniserz hler Jesus in 1981 and now translated into English for the first time this seminal work by Professor David Flusser remains an important and unparalleled contribution on Jesus as a storyteller in the Jewish rabbinic tradition Using a literary approach to study extant rabbinic parables he argues that Jesus parables belong to a genre that exists only in rabbinic literature and the New Testament In order to analyze the theology behind Jesus parables we need to understand them as a first century literary art form In a summary of the book Flusser writes I am firmly convinced with fellow researchers that it is possible to get reasonably close to the original wording of Jesus teaching But this is only the case when the otherwise usual method of literary criticism is applied to the text of the Synoptic Gospels and when moreover one is willing and able to be guided by knowledge of Judaism I certainly admit that the words of Jesus including his parables were edited by Greek redactors and subsequently by the evangelists Nevertheless I believe it is often possible to separate the shell from the nut by applying a better synoptic theory As I have argued several times the parables of Jesus belong to the genre of the rabbinic parables Therefore valid statements about Jesus parables whether these regard their essence or their literary quality can only be made when one has first dealt with the essence and literary form of the rabbinic parables
