Analysis of Student Interns' Perceptions Regarding the Impact of the Intern Experience on Their Career

Development David Evan Persell,1981

Business and Management Internships Kawana Johnson,2021-07-22

Research shows that internships are the dominant form of experiential learning used in business schools worldwide providing practical insight into a job role for students and enhancing their employability This book provides practical resources that practitioners and students can use to maximize the overall internship experience by explaining business education internships skill development and employment outcomes It also includes material to assist in the development or enhancement of internship programs to create a high quality internship course while providing guidance on reflecting and evaluating the learning gained from the experience Including quizzes and short activities this book can be used as a companion text for any student participating in an internship or as a guide that practitioners in this field can use to help design their own internship program and course content Business schools are increasing their focus on experiential learning and are encouraging faculty to incorporate internships into their existing curriculum Linking theory history and practice this book is ideal reading for students participating in an internship for academic credit and as a guidebook for business school practitioners who wish to start or improve their existing academic internship program

Business Internships Michael Griffin,2010-12-28 This book can be used as the text for an internship course book or as a how to manual for anyone wanting to setup a successful internship experience Whether you are looking to land a great internship or already have an internship and want to increase the odds that it will be an excellent learning experience this book can help The content of the book is based on the experiences of Michael P Griffin Internship Director and Accounting Professor at the Charlton College of Business at the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth

The Synergistic Classroom Corey Campion,Aaron Angello,2020-10-16 Among the many challenges confronting the liberal arts today is a fundamental disconnect between the curricula that many institutions offer and the training that many students need Discipline specific models of teaching and learning can underprepare students for the kinds of interdisciplinary collaboration that employers now expect Although aware of these expectations and the need for change many small colleges and universities have struggled to translate interdisciplinarity into programs and curricula that better serve today s students Written by faculty engaged in the design and delivery of interdisciplinary courses programs and experiential learning opportunities in the small college setting The Synergistic Classroom addresses the many ways faculty can leverage their institutions small size and openness to pedagogical experimentation to overcome the challenges of limited institutional resources and enrollment concerns and better prepare students for life and work in the twenty first century Taken together the contributions in this volume invite reflection on a variety of important issues that attend the work of small college faculty committed to expanding student learning across disciplinary boundaries

The Human Services Internship

Experience Marianne Woodside, 2016-03-09 The Human Services Internship Experience Helping Students Find Their Way aims to help students in field based courses bridge theory and practice during their internships The goal is to show students how to apply their academic work in a real world setting and to confirm and expand their identity as human service professionals The Internship Handbook Richard G. Salem, 2005 Internship Experience with the County Drain Commission, Washtenaw County, Michigan Stuart Shelly Sonny Cohen, 1974 Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution Journal of the American Institute of Homeopathy, 1922 Journal of the American Institute of Homœopathy, 1922 Handbook of Counselor Preparation Karen Eriksen, 2011-12 Published in cooperation with the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision ACES The Internship, Practicum, and Field Placement Handbook Brian N. Baird, Debra Mollen, 2023-04-18 The Internship Practicum and Field Placement Handbook offers real world knowledge of the skills interns in the helping professions need through every phase of their internship practicum or field placement The focus is on topics that may not have been addressed or fully developed through regular academic coursework meeting clients fees for service supervision ethics legal issues diversity clinical writing case notes and clinical records personal safety self care advocacy technology termination and planning for the future Every phase of the internship is discussed sequentially from finding and preparing for placements to concluding relationships with clients and supervisors Drawing from the fields of psychology counseling social work school counseling and psychiatry this edition has been thoroughly updated with the latest research and clinical literature ethical codes of the leading professions and legal and regulatory developments at federal and state levels This edition also features up to date coverage of remote education training supervision and practice as impacted by Covid 19 and technological changes Diversity awareness and insights are woven through every element of the text taking into account recent developments such as Black Lives Matter the MeToo movement gender identity awareness Other emerging issues are also addressed including the impact of the opioid epidemic and substance abuse deaths and the ethical legal issues that may arise relating to reproductive health and abortion related legislation In text exercises and thought problems are incorporated into each chapter for students to develop insights and skills Eleven online appendices are also included containing learning plans supervision agreements evaluation forms and ethical guidelines that students will need in preparation for the next phase of their training The Internship Practicum and Field Placement Handbook is an invaluable resource for students faculty and supervisors engaged in the challenging experience of transitioning from academia into clinical training in the field
