LOVE IS (COLOR) BLIND Mallory Jagodzinski, 2015 This dissertation analyzes three historical romance novels Secrets of a Scandalous Heiress by Theresa Romain 2015 The Duke of Shadows by Meredith Duran 2008 and The Heiress Effect by Courtney Milan 2013 to understand how postracial rhetoric is being contested and confirmed in a genre where the reader is promised an emotionally just ending In historical romance novels this emotionally just ending often involves a re writing of history where institutional systems often patriarchy are made progressive and more hospitable to oppressed groups through the power of romantic love RWA About the Romance Genre I argue that depictions of interracial relationships in twenty first century historical romance novels written by American authors for a primarily American audience helps to illustrate both the problem of postracial thinking and the complexities and contradictions of postracial thinking by rewriting both history and historical stereotypes The inclusion of interracial relationships that seriously analyze issues of racial identity within the course of the narrative helps to trouble the dominance of the postracial narrative for readers of romance 83% of whom are white according to a survey conducted by The Nielsen Company for the Romance Writers of America The Romance Book Buyer 11      How to Write a Bestselling BWWM Interracial Romance Just Bae,2025-01-18 The demand for interracial romances is exploding Ready to dive into the booming world of interracial romance With our writing guide you can write the books that these readers are craving and potentially tap into a highly profitable market Packed with tips and insights from bestselling interracial romance authors making five six figures a month you ll discover proven story frameworks spicy but authentic love scenes diverse character development tools and smart marketing advice tailored for IR Want overnight book launch success Publishing credits under your favorite author Or even a movie deal This writer s guide shortcuts trial and error so you can start earning money from your words If you re serious about taking your IR pen name into the big leagues don t wait Invest in BWWM today Don t just dream about it Seize your WRITING destiny now      Interracial Encounters Julia H. Lee,2011 Why do black characters appear so frequently in Asian American literary works and Asian characters appear in African American literary works in the early twentieth century Interracial Encounters attempts to answer this rather straightforward literary question arguing that scenes depicting Black Asian interactions relationships and conflicts capture the constitution of African American and Asian American identities as each group struggled to negotiate the racially exclusionary nature of American identity In this nuanced study Julia H Lee argues that the diversity and ambiguity that characterize these textual moments radically undermine the popular notion that the history of Afro Asian relations can be reduced to a monolithic media friendly narrative whether of cooperation or antagonism Drawing on works by Charles Chesnutt Wu Tingfang Edith and Winnifred Eaton Nella Larsen W E B Du Bois and Younghill Kang Interracial Encounters foregrounds how these reciprocal representations emerged from the nation s pervasive pairing of the figure of the Negro and the Asiatic in oppositional overlapping or analogous relationships within a wide variety of popular scientific legal and cultural discourses Historicizing these interracial encounters within a national and global context highlights how multiple racial groups shaped the narrative of race and national identity in the early twentieth century as well as how early twentieth century American literature emerged from that multiracial political context

Critical Mixed Race Philosophy Sabrina L. Hom,2025-03-15 Critical Mixed Race Philosophy Rethinking Kinship and Identity reimagines mixed race studies arguing that commonplace and widely accepted ways of understanding mixedness are mired in outdated and essentialist assumptions about race biology and kinship Sabrina L Hom explores the intersection of race sex and sexuality and calls for a nuanced understanding of the politics of mixed race Commonplace narratives treat mixedness as something new and transformative but it is neither as promising nor as fearful as it may seem Instead the author draws on rich mixed race histories both to make the case that mixedness has always been a part of the racial landscape and to argue for a more dynamic understanding of race that reflects how frequently ambiguous bodies are incorporated into racial logic Drawing on feminist and queer theory Critical Mixed Race Philosophy articulates a non essentialist conception of mixed race identity and kinship that asks us to rethink what it means to be mixed and where mixed people fit into racial politics Race, Romance, and Rebellion Colleen C. O'Brien, 2013-10-07 As in many literatures of the New World grappling with issues of slavery and freedom stories of racial insurrection frequently coincided with stories of cross racial romance in nineteenth century U S print culture Colleen O'Brien explores how authors such as Harriet Jacobs Elizabeth Livermore and Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda imagined the expansion of race and gender based rights as a hemispheric affair drawing together the United States with Africa Cuba and other parts of the Caribbean Placing less familiar women writers in conversation with their more famous contemporaries Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller and Lydia Maria Child O'Brien traces the transnational progress of freedom through the antebellum cultural fascination with cross racial relationships and insurrections Her book mines a variety of sources fiction political rhetoric popular journalism race science and biblical treatises to reveal a common concern a future in which romance and rebellion engender radical social and political transformation Colorblind - A Sensual Interracial BWWM Historical Erotic Romance Short Story from Steam Books Lauren Battiste, 2013 Escaping slavery on her way to a future of freedom in Canada Ruthie is hosted by handsome young Joshua The spark between them is undeniable but in the 1800s the color line is one that love and lust is forbidden to cross A to Z of American Women Writers Carol Kort, 2014-05-14 Presents a biographical dictionary profiling important women authors including birth and death dates accomplishments and bibliography of each author's work Rethinking the Romance Genre E. Davis, 2013-12-05 Rethinking the Romance Genre examines why the romance genre has proven such an irresistible form for contemporary writers and filmmakers as they approach global issues In contemporary texts ranging from literary works to films to social media romance facilitates a range of intimacies that offer new feminist models in the age of globalization A Taste of Desire Sandra Sinclair, 2013 In the 1700s Cornelia runs away from the plantation where she'd been leading a life of slavery She had no idea where she would end up and she definitely never thought she would arrive in the mansion of a mysterious wealthy white man With his dazzling looks and kind demeanor he rouses in her feelings she had never before experienced among them dizzying desire WARNING This 3 971 word short story is a steamy read that features explicit interracial lovemaking and supernatural themes in a historical 18th century North American setting and may be too much for some readers to handle BONUS This e book contains a preview of the hot story Greener Pastures by Stacey Allure

Rediscovering Frank Yerby Matthew Teutsch, 2020-04-20 Contributions by Catherine L Adams Stephanie Brown Gene Andrew Jarrett John Wharton Lowe Guirnex Mass Anderson Rouse Matthew Teutsch Donna lyn Washington and Veronica T Watson Rediscovering Frank Yerby Critical Essays is the first book length study of Yerby's life and work The collection explores a myriad of topics including his connections to the Harlem and Chicago Renaissances readership and reception representations of masculinity and patriotism film adaptations and engagement with race identity and religion The contributors to this collection work to rectify the misunderstandings of Yerby's work that have relegated him to the sidelines and ultimately begin a reexamination of the importance of the prince of pulpsters in American literature It was Robert Bone in The Negro Novel in America who infamously dismissed Frank Yerby 1916 1991 as the prince of pulpsters Like Bone many literary critics at the time criticized Yerby's lack of focus on race and the stereotypical treatment of African American characters in his books This negative labeling continued to stick to Yerby even as he gained critical success first with The Foxes of Harrow the first novel by an African American to sell more than a million copies and later as he began to publish more political works like Speak Now and The Dahomean However the literary community cannot continue to ignore Frank Yerby and his impact on American literature More than a fiction writer Yerby should be put in conversation with such contemporaneous writers as Richard Wright Dorothy West James Baldwin William Faulkner Margaret Mitchell and more
