Christianity in the first century had no founder but rather evolved as a convergence of many forces political disillusionment cultural mutations religious and theological motifs psychosocial losses and new expectations Moving on from an examination of the foundations of historical and literary criticism in the Renaissance and a detailed study of two writers in antiquity Thucydides and Chariton to examine writings in the period between Plato and the Gospel of Mark the authors then explore the writing of Paul and the stories told in the Gospels With the early Christians drawing from both Greek and Hebrew sources Barnhart and Kraeger propose that like Plato Paul and other Christians generated an anti tragic theatre gospel with the Jesus figure being the creation of a culture steeped in an anthropomorphic metaphysical view of the world Brill's Companion to the Legacy of Greek Political Thought ,2024-09-23 A wealth of political literature has survived from Greek antiquity from political theory by Plato and Aristotle to the variety of prose and verse texts that more broadly demonstrate political thinking However despite the extent of this legacy it can be surprisingly hard to say how ancient Greek political thought makes its influence felt or whether this influence has been sustained across the centuries This volume includes a range of disciplinary responses to issues surrounding the legacy of Greek political thought exploring the ways in which political thinking has evolved from antiquity to the present day The Landscape of Humanity Anthony O'Hear,2011-11-29 The fourteen essays in this book develop a conception of human culture which is humane and traditionalist Focusing particularly on notions of beauty and the aesthetic it sees within our culture intimations of the transcendent and in two essays the nature of religion is directly addressed A number of essays also explore the relation between politics and tradition

Love Disconsoled Timothy P. Jackson,1999-11-25 Few concepts are more central to ethics than love but none is more subject to false consolation This 1999 book explores several theological philosophical and literary accounts of love focusing on how it relates to matters such as self interest and self sacrifice and invulnerability and immortality Timothy Jackson first considers key aspects of what the Bible says about love then he further examines the meaning of love and sacrifice through a close reading of novels by Fitzgerald and Hemingway Lastly he evaluates how love constrains and is constrained by other traditional moral concepts Throughout Jackson defends the moral priority of what the Christian tradition calls agape He argues that a proper understanding of agapic love rejects both moral relativism and the comfort of believing that good people cannot be harmed or that God causally necessitates every historical action and event When love is thus disconsoled it neither fears death nor despises life

The Ancient Language of Sacred Sound David Elkington, 2021-04-06 Details how sacred sites resonate at the same frequencies as both the Earth and the alpha waves of the human brain Shows how human writing in its original hieroglyphic form was a direct response to the divine sound patterns of sacred sites Explains how ancient hero myths from around the world relate to divine acoustic science and formed the source of religion The Earth resonates at an extremely low frequency Known as the Schumann Resonance this natural rhythm of the Earth precisely corresponds with the human brain's alpha wave frequencies the frequency at which we enter into and come out of sleep as well as the frequency of deep meditation inspiration and problem solving Sound experiments reveal that sacred sites and structures like stupas pyramids and cathedrals also resonate at these special frequencies when activated by chanting and singing Did our ancestors build their sacred sites according to the rhythms of the Earth Exploring the acoustic connections between the Earth the human brain and sacred spaces David Elkington shows how humanity maintained a direct line of communication with Mother Earth and the Divine through the construction of sacred sites such as Stonehenge Newgrange Machu Picchu Chartres Cathedral and the pyramids of both Egypt and Mexico He reveals how human writing in its original hieroglyphic form was a direct response to the divine sound patterns of sacred sites showing how for example recognizable hieroglyphs appear in sand patterns when the sacred frequencies of the Great Pyramid are activated Looking at ancient hero legends those about the bringers of important knowledge or language Elkington explains how these myths form the source of ancient religion and have a unique mythological resonance as do the sites associated with them The author then reveals how religion including Christianity is an ancient language of acoustic science given expression by the world's sacred sites and shows that power places played a profound role in the development of human civilization

THE REVIEW OF POLITICS Re-appropriating "Marvelous Fables" Noël Pretila, 2013-10-17 Edwin Hatch provided a colorful portrait of the religious world to which Justin Martyr belonged The main subject matter of literary education amongst the pagans was the poets They were read as we read the Bible They were committed to memory The minds of men were saturated with them A quotation from Homer or from a tragic poet was apposite on all occasions and in every kind of society The Influence of Greek Ideas on Christianity 1957 So when some of these pagans converted to Christianity in Justin's day is it reasonable to assume that they simply forgot these mythical narratives in which they had been reared from childhood Re appropriating Marvelous Fables sets out to argue that this was hardly the case Rather Justin in 1 Apology can be seen taking full advantage of this mythical framework that still loomed large in the minds of fledgling Christian believers and students in his care masterfully re appropriating this popular form of religious discourse for the purpose of solidifying their newfound faith
