Management James V. Dupree, Stephen P.

Robbins, Mary Coulter, 1998-08 Diversity Management John Arierhi Ottuh, 2025-03-01 This book offers a historical analysis as well as contextual management strategy on Nigeria's lingering ethno religious conundrums. From a rigorous examination of ethno religious related violence considering historical events such as the Civil War, Niger Delta armed struggle and the rise of Boko Haram to the application of philosophical religious and social frameworks for peacebuilding. This book provides a comprehensive overview of the challenges and potential solutions for managing the complex heterogeneous ethno religious diversity in Nigeria and Africa by exploring survey sacred texts and relevant theories like Kantian and Gurr's RD theories. Moreover, the book provides insights for policy makers on how ethno religiously diverse society normatively induce conflicts and discusses the importance of proactive policies that enhance good governance and prevent violent conflicts that may fester if unattended. This work would be beneficial to scholars and students of religious studies, peace studies, political science, history, social studies and Africans and Africans in Diaspora. Sequential Learning and Decision-Making in Wireless Resource Management Rong Zheng, Cunqing Hua, 2017-01-05 This book lays out the theoretical foundation of the so-called multi-armed bandit MAB problems and puts it in the context of resource management in wireless networks. Part I of the book presents the formulations, algorithms and performance of three forms of MAB problems: namely stochastic Markov and adversarial. Covering all three forms of MAB problems makes this book unique in the field. Part II of the book provides detailed discussions of representative applications of the sequential learning framework in cognitive radio networks, wireless LANs and wireless mesh networks. Both individuals in industry and those in the wireless research community will benefit from this comprehensive and timely treatment of these topics. Advanced level students studying communications engineering and networks will also find the content valuable and accessible. Spatial Diversity and Dynamics in Resources and Urban Development Ashok K. Dutt, Allen G. Noble, Frank J. Costa, Sudhir K. Thakur, Rajiv Thakur, Hari S. Sharma, 2015-10-15 This double volume work focuses on socio-demographics and the use of such data to support strategic resource management and planning initiatives. Papers go beyond explanations of methods, technique and traditional applications to explore new intersections in the dynamic relationship between the utilization and management of resources and urban development. International authors explore numerous experiences, characteristics of development and decision making influences from across Asia and Southeast Asia as well as recounting examples from America and Africa. Papers propound techniques and methods used in geographical research such as support vector machines, socio-economic correlates and travel behaviour analysis. In this volume, the contributions examine issues such as natural resource and environmental management, livelihoods issues in the context of climate change, land markets and land trusts, adaptive management of wildlife sanctuaries, ground water scarcity, flood hazards and flood plain management, non-conventional energy resources, community forestry and management and land use and land cover change. The significance of these topics lie in the pace and volume of change as is reflected through continued development within established fields of inquiry and the introduction of significantly new approaches during the last decade Readers are invited to consider the dynamics of spatial expansion of urban areas and economic development and to explore conceptual discussion of the innovations in and challenges on urbanization processes urban spaces themselves and both resource management and environmental management Together the two volumes contribute to the interdisciplinary literature on regional resources and urban development by collating recent research with geography at its core Scholars of urban geography human geography urbanism and sustainable development will be particularly interested in this book Content and Workflow Management for Library Web Sites Holly Yu, 2005-01-01 Using database driven web pages or web content management WCM systems to manage increasingly diverse web content and to streamline workflows is a commonly practiced solution recognized in libraries to day However limited library web content management models and funding constraints prevent many libraries from purchasing commercially available WCM systems And the lack of much needed technical expertise in building in house WCM systems presents a great challenge for libraries of all types Content and Workflow Management for Library Websites Case Studies provides practical and applicable web content management solutions through case studies It contains successful database to web applications as employed in a variety of academic libraries The applications vary in scope and cover a range of practical how to do it examples from database driven web development locally created web content management systems systems for distributing content management responsibilities dynamic content delivery to open source tools such as MySQL and PHP to manage the content Issues and challenges associated with the development process are discussed Authors will also discuss detours sand traps and missteps necessary to a real learning process Instructor's Resource Guide to Accompany Human Resource Management DeCenzo, 1999-01-13 Clinical Management of Swallowing Disorders, Fifth Edition Thomas Murry, Ricardo L. Carrau, Karen Chan, 2020-12-16 Clinical Management of Swallowing Disorders Fifth Edition is a textbook for speech language pathology programs that examines the diagnosis and treatment of swallowing disorders in children and adults Thoroughly updated this popular text emphasizes evidence based practice multidisciplinary team management swallowing safety nutrition behavioral treatments and management following surgical options Authored by two speech language pathologists and an otolaryngologist for a multidisciplinary approach the Fifth Edition continues to be easy to understand text for students and also serves as an up to date reference for practicing clinicians who treat swallowing disorders in hospitals rehabilitation centers nursing homes and private outpatient clinics New to the Fifth Edition New chapter on the aging population The Anatomy and Physiology chapter has been thoroughly updated and 15 beautiful new full color illustrations have been added More images and enhanced figures including additional FEES and fluoroscopy video studies of swallowing disorders in head and neck cancer and stroke patients Many new references easy to read tables and treatment hints Information on pediatric feeding and swallowing has been updated and expanded Evidence based practice methods have been updated Content has been edited to be more concise applicable and reader friendly The text features numerous pedagogical aids to reinforce student understanding Case study inserts in many chapters and 9 extended case studies in the final chapter 32 videos Discussion questions and answers for each chapter Bolded and boxed key terms throughout with an end of book glossary Clinical tips clinician s roles areas of emphasis and key learning points highlighted in boxes throughout the chapters 8 appendices featuring helpful tests and tools for clinicians NEW full clinical swallowing examination record form included in appendix Disclaimer Please note that ancillary content such as documents audio and video etc may not be included as published in the original print version of this book Higher Education and the Student Robert Troschitz,2017-05-08 As one of the pioneers and leading advocates of neoliberalism Britain and in particular England has radically transformed its higher education system in recent decades What was once a public good has turned into a market in which universities are required to perform like businesses with students being increasingly referred to as customers The Idea of Higher Education and the Student investigates precisely this relation between the changing function of higher education and how we see the student But instead of offering yet another critique of neoliberalism and marketisation it widens the view beyond the present
