

Introducing Government in America

Chapter 1

Vocabulary

- Government: the institutions through which public policies are made for a society.
- Collective goods: goods and services, such as clean air and clean water, that by their nature cannot be denied to anyone.
- Politics: the process of determining the leaders we select and the policies they pursue; the process produces authoritative decisions about public issues.
- Majority rule: a fundamental principle of traditional democratic theory; in a democracy, choosing among alternatives requires that the majority's desire be respected.
- Pluralism: a theory of American democracy emphasizing that the policymaking process is open to the participation of all groups with shared interests, with no single group usually dominating; theorists tend to believe that as a result, public interest generally prevails.
- Hyperpluralism: a theory of American democracy contending that interest groups are so strong that government, which gives in to the many different groups, is thereby weakened.
- Elitism: a theory of American democracy contending that an upper-class elite holds the power and makes policy, regardless of the formal governmental organization.
- Political issue: an issue that arises when people disagree about a problem and how to fix it.
- Minority rights: a principle of traditional democratic theory that guarantees rights to those who do not belong to majorities.
- Policy agenda: the issues that attract the serious attention of public officials and other people involved in politics at a point in time.
- Policy impacts: the effects a policy has on people and problems; these are analyzed to see how well a policy has met its goal and at what cost.
- Political participation: all the activities by which citizens attempt to influence the selection of political leaders and the policies they pursue. Voting is the most common means in a democracy. Other means are contacting public officials, protest, and civil disobedience.
- Policy gridlock: a condition that occurs when interests conflict and no coalition is strong enough to form a majority and establish policy, so nothing gets done.
- Public policy: a choice that government makes in response to a political issue; a course of action taken with regard to some problem.
- Representation: a basic principle of traditional democratic theory that describes the relationship between the few leaders and the many followers.
