Focusing mainly on compulsory schooling it provides summaries of the thinking, research findings and innovative practices current at the time. However the book is also careful to present a complete picture of education and therefore includes a separate section for education beyond school which covers pre school level, post secondary level and adult and continuing education. There are also other chapters dealing with aspects of organization, curriculum and teaching in various forms of tertiary education. Indeed each topic has been discussed by an acknowledged expert writing in sufficient detail in order to resist trivialization. British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon,2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost, some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of deaccessioning, mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution, this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference, one that will
