Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty-First Century Howard Tafara Chitimira,Artwell Nhemachena,Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa,2021-09-27 In Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century Universalism and Particularism in International Law the contributors argue that the world is witnessing the formation of a global jurisprudential apartheid despite the promotion of democracy equality human rights and humanitarianism Examining organisations such as international criminal courts the World Trade Organisation the United Nations Security Council the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank the contributors unpack the challenges of global jurisprudential apartheid

In particular they analyse the ways in which these organizations hold and contribute to the increasing inequalities between the Global North and the Global South Ultimately Global Jurisprudential Apartheid in the Twenty First Century shows that globalisation is a variant of the apartheid era particularism and not universalism working to advantage the Global North while disadvantaging the Global South under the pretense of humanitarianism

50 Years of Central Banking in Kenya Patrick Njoroge, Victor Murinde, 2021 This book documents important milestones in the epic journey traversed by the Central Bank of Kenya over the last 50 years putting into perspective the evolution of central banking globally and within the East African region and contemplating future prospects and challenges The book is timely mainly because the global financial landscape has shifted Central bankers have expanded their mandates beyond the singular focus on inflation and consider economic growth as their other important objective Financial crises have continued to disrupt the functioning of financial institutions and markets the most devastating episodes being the global financial crisis which broke out in 2008 and from which the global financial system has not fully recovered and the unprecedented challenges posed by the global coronavirus pandemic Bank regulation has moved from Basel I to Basel II and somehow migrated to Basel III although some countries are still at the cross roads The book originated from the wide ranging discussions on central banking from a symposium to celebrate the 50 year anniversary on 13 September 2016 in Nairobi The participants at the symposium included current and former central bank governors from Kenya and the Eastern Africa region high level officials from multilateral financial institutions policy makers bank executives civil society actors researchers and students The book is an invaluable resource for policy makers practitioners and researchers on how monetary policy and financial practices in vogue today in Kenya have evolved through time and worked very well but also about some pitfalls

Health Equity in a Globalizing Era Ronald Labonté, Arne Ruckert, 2019 This title discusses how globalization impacts the health of individuals and populations It focuses on how globalization processes have impacted various social determinants of health such as income employment or migration patterns and how this in turn shapes inequities in health outcomes

Constitutional Democracy in Crisis? Mark A. Graber, Sanford Levinson, Mark Tushnet, 2018-08-23 Is the world facing a serious threat to the protection of constitutional democracy There is a genuine debate about the meaning of the various political events that have for many scholars and observers generated a feeling of deep foreboding about our collective futures all over the world Do these events represent simply the normal ebb and flow of political possibilities or do they instead portend a more permanent move away from constitutional democracy that had been thought triumphant after the demise of the Soviet Union in 1989 Constitutional Democracy in Crisis addresses these questions head on Are the forces weakening constitutional democracy around the world general or nation specific Why have some major democracies seemingly not experienced these problems How can we as scholars and citizens think clearly about the ideas of constitutional crisis or constitutional degeneration What are the impacts of forces such as globalization immigration income inequality populism nationalism religious sectarianism Bringing together leading scholars to engage critically with the crises facing constitutional democracies in the 21st century these essays diagnose the causes of the present afflictions in regimes regions and across the globe believing at this stage that diagnosis is of central importance as Abraham Lincoln said in his House Divided speech If we could first know where we are and whither we are tending we could then better judge what to do and how to do it      Ending Africa's Energy Deficit and the Law

Yinka Omorogbe, Ada Ordor, 2018-02-22 With the inclusion of access to energy in the sustainable development goals the role of energy to human existence was finally recognized Yet in Africa this achievement is far from realized Omorogbe and Ordor bring together experts in their fields to ask what is stalling progress examining problems from institutions catering to vested interests at the continent's expense to a need to develop vigorous financial and fiscal frameworks The ramifications and complications of energy law are labyrinthine this volume discusses how energy deficits can burden disabled people women and children in excess of their more fortunate counterparts as well as considering environmental issues including the delicate balance between the necessity of water for drinking and cleaning and the use of water in industrial processes A pivotal work of scholarship the book poses pressing questions for energy law and international human rights
