

In Part 7 of the reading and writing paper candidates are required to write a story based on three pictures (Question 32). Let's look at a sample task¹ and try to understand what we should write in it. Read the answers to the questions below.

Question 32

Look at the three pictures.

Write the story shown in the pictures.

Write 35 words or more.

Write the story on your answer sheet.

What style of writing do you think you should use?

You should certainly use a narrative style, i.e. write about events following one after another.

What type of writing is your piece going to be?

You are going to write a story. It means you are expected to introduce story characters and tell the target reader about a situation(s) they are (were) in.

What must your story include?

Basically, you must look at the pictures and identify the three main events of the story. Mind that you must make reference to all three picture prompts.

How many words should you write?

35 words or more. This instruction implies that you can write only one paragraph.
