Intercultural Contact, Language Learning and Migration Barbara Geraghty, Jean Conacher, 2014-09-25 At the heart of this volume lies an exploration of what actually happens to languages and their users when cultures come into contact What actions do supra national institutions nation states communities and individuals take in response to questions raised by the increasingly diverse forms of migration experienced in a globalized world The volume reveals the profound impact that decisions made at national and international level can have on the lives of the individual migrant language student or speech community Equally it evaluates the broader ramifications of actions taken by migrant communities and individual language learners around issues of language learning language maintenance and intercultural contact Reflecting Jan Blommaert's assertion that in a world shaped by globalization what is needed is a theory of language in society of changing language in a changing society this volume argues that researchers must increasingly seek diverse methodological approaches if they are to do justice to the diversity of experience and response they encounter

A Conversation Analysis Approach to French L2 Learning Clelia König, 2019-12-06 This book offers a critical examination of second language L2 learning outside institutional contexts with a focus on the way second language learners introduce close and manage conversational topics in everyday settings König adopts a Conversation Analysis for Second Language Acquisition CA SLA approach in analyzing oral data from a longitudinal study of L2 learners of French au pairs in Swiss families over several years With this approach the author presents insights into the ways in which L2 learners introduce and close conversational topics in ongoing conversations and how these strategies evolve over time setting the stage for future research on this little documented process in second language acquisition This volume contributes toward a greater understanding of L2 learning in the wild making this key reading for students and researchers in second language acquisition applied linguistics and French language learning and teaching

Language Management Natalie Victoria Wilmot, 2022-08-12 This book draws on case studies of language management within British organisations to examine the decisions they make about language diversity in their professional communications in order to be successful in a multilingual world It explores the practices that the organisations use to manage language diversity in interorganisational relationships and why certain practices occur in some situations and not others The book highlights how organisations rely on individual employees to perform a variety of language tasks and the implications of this the effect of English as a global lingua franca and the translation challenges which organisations face The book demonstrates that practices to manage language diversity are often a result of the resources organisations have at given moments in time rather than being part of a deliberate language management strategy Teacher King's English Beginner Course Book 1 - Polish Edition Kevin L. Language Teaching Przemysław E. Gębał,Iwona Janowska,2025-04-14 The aim of the volume is to focus on research interests that are rarely presented in the literature on the subject and that arise from the currently perceived needs of the developing didactics of Polish as a foreign language The research results presented in the contributions provide a new look at the process of acquiring and or teaching learning Polish from the following aspects the peculiarities of Ukrainian speakers learning Polish problems of acquiring Polish by students from Japan China France and Lebanon methods of developing language skills and activities and specific phenomena in teaching Polish as a business language Qualitative quantitative and mixed analyses as well as experimental corpora allow the results described to be considered important for the developing discipline Peripheries at the Centre Machteld Venken,2021-03-03 Following the Treaty of Versailles European nation states were faced with the challenge of instilling national loyalty in their new borderlands in which fellow citizens often differed dramatically from one another along religious linguistic cultural or ethnic lines Peripheries at the Centre compares the experiences of schooling in Upper Silesia in Poland and Eupen Sankt Vith and Malmedy in Belgium border regions detached from the German Empire after the First World War It demonstrates how newly configured countries envisioned borderland schools and language learning as tools for realizing the imagined peaceful Europe that underscored the political geography of the interwar period Didactics of Polish as a Foreign and Second Language against the European Background Przemysław E. Gębał, Władysław T. Miodunka, 2024-11-18 This volume starts with an overview of the history of teaching Polish as a foreign language from the beginning of the 16th century to 1939 The authors then present the rapid development of teaching Polish as a foreign language from 1992 to 2015 This is supplemented by information on the methodology of teaching Polish In the next part they describe the didactics of the Polish language abroad followed by the introduction of the Polish language policy and the promotion of Polish outside Poland Then they present the teaching of Polish as a second language and the problems of communication At the end information is given about the achievements of European didactics in the field of teaching Polish as a foreign and second language The volume concludes with a proposal for the creation of a didactics of European languages including Slavic languages as well Proceedings of the ... Consecutive and the ... Biennial Convention of the United Mine Workers of America, District 12 United Mine Workers of America, United Mine Workers of America. District 12 (Ill.), 1918 International Language, 1924 Advances in the Investigation of L3 Phonological Acquisition Magdalena Wrembel, Jennifer Cabrelli Amaro, 2018-10-18 This book aims to bridge the gap in investigations into the acquisition of phonology from a multilingual perspective In order to fully understand this process the editors present state of the art research into third language L3 phonology as well as future considerations for this field The individual contributions address limitations apparent in current literature in terms of methodology and scope while offering innovative solutions in the study of conceptualization design and data analysis and novel application of theoretical frameworks to L3 phonology The contributions consist of a number of original studies which attempt to address vital research questions regarding a bilingual advantage for subsequent phonological acquisition the variables that drive phonological transfer at the onset of third language acquisition the L3 developmental path and how L3 phonological acquisition affects existing systems The empirical and theoretical strides made in the study of L3 phonology provided in this volume confirm that it is a promising area of inquiry with a growing potential to provide novel insights into the linguistic and cognitive underpinnings of language acquisition This book was originally published as a special issue of International Journal of Multilingualism Speaking and Instructed Foreign Language Acquisition Mirosław Pawlak, Ewa Waniek-Klimczak, Jan Majer, 2011 This book investigates various aspects of speaking in a foreign language It is unique in considering this key skill from both psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic perspectives and in focusing entirely on instructed foreign language contexts The book demonstrates how theory and research can be translated into classroom practice Engaging with Linguistic Diversity David Little, Déirdre Kirwan, 2019-06-13 Engaging with Linguistic Diversity describes an innovative and highly successful approach to inclusive plurilingual education at primary level. The approach was developed by Scoil Bhr de Cail n Blanchardstown as a way of converting extreme linguistic diversity (more than 50 home languages) in a school of 320 pupils into educational capital. The central feature of the approach is the inclusion of home languages in classroom communication. After describing the national context, the book traces the development of Scoil Bhr de s approach and explores in detail its impact on classroom discourse, pupils' plurilingual literacy development and their capacity for autonomous learning. The authors illustrate their arguments with a wealth of practical evidence drawn from a variety of sources; pupils' and teachers' voices are especially prominent. The concluding chapter considers issues of sustainability and replication and the implications of the approach for teacher education. The book refers to a wide range of relevant research findings and theories, including translanguaging, plurilingual and intercultural education, language awareness and language learner autonomy. It is essential reading for researchers and policy makers in the field of linguistically inclusive education.
