Everyday Sacred, Everywhere Beauty Kownacki, Mary Lou, 2024-09-25 In the Spirit Candace L. Kohli, 2024-11-14 How does the Christian produce good works in service of her neighbor after justification In Martin Luther's famous 1520 treatise The Freedom of a Christian the Reformer claimed that Christ's love springs spontaneously from the Christian's soul as good works In Luther's late medieval theological context however this statement was incoherent with philosophical theories of moral action which required an interplay between the soul and body This problem persists in Lutheran theology today where human passivity in justification is extended over the Christian's entire temporal life Yet Luther seemed to find solutions to this question in his late controversies with Johann Agricola over law and gospel This study looks to pneumatological developments in that controversy for resources that support a more coherent view of moral action in the Christian life
