

Decision Making Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Finding Relevant Information	I know several strategies to help me find the information I need to make a good decision.	I know how to find the information I need to make a good decision.	With help, I can usually find the information I need to make a good decision.	I cannot find the information I need to make a decision.
Creating Options	I think of several possible choices when an important decision must be made.	I think of more than one option when I have to make an important decision.	When I have help, I can think of more than one option when I have to make an important decision.	I usually can only think of one possible choice when I have to make an important decision.
Weighing Options	I use a variety of reasoning strategies to weigh my options and choose the best one.	I think carefully about all my choices before I make a decision.	Unless someone reminds me, I often make decisions without thinking carefully about them.	I usually make important decisions quickly without thinking carefully about them.
Predicting Consequences	I predict the consequences of each of my decisions and think about the impact that they will have on others and me.	I think about the consequences of my decisions.	I have trouble thinking about what the consequences of my decisions will be.	I do not think about the consequences of my decisions.

Milady Scoring Rubrics:

The Streets of Ascalon Robert W. Chambers, 2021-04-25 In The Streets of Ascalon Robert W Chambers crafts a mesmerizing narrative that intertwines elements of the supernatural with rich evocative settings reminiscent of late 19th century Paris The book unfolds through a series of vignettes illustrating the lives of artists and dreamers who are caught between reality and the ethereal possibilities of their imaginations Chambers lyrical prose and striking imagery draw readers into an intricate web of emotions and reflections on existential themes mirroring the Symbolist movement that profoundly influenced him during this era Chambers an American author born in 1865 was a contemporary of the literary avant garde His exposure to European culture and literature would shape his narrative strategies and philosophies The Streets of Ascalon reflects his interests in art beauty and the esoteric while the author s own experiences as an illustrator and a member of the theatrical community lend authenticity to his exploration of the artistic psyche This novel is highly recommended for readers who are intrigued by the intersection of art and the metaphysical It invites introspection and challenges one s perception of reality making it a captivating read for those who appreciate depth and disquieting beauty in literature
