Warikandwa, Artwell Nhemachena, 2017-09-26 One of the fundamental challenges in deconstructing rethinking and remaking the world from a Pan African vantage point is that some captives have tended to delight in the warmth of the imperial predators mouth In other words some captives forget that the imperial predators mouth gets warm because empire is eating and heating up from prey on the continent De Militarisation Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the New Scramble for Africa A Pan African Socio Legal Perspective is a book that knocks on key aspects relating to land militarisation a PostAfrican World Order and a chaotic Post God World Order which require critical scholarly and policy attention in the quest to free Africa from centuries old imperial depredations The book carefully navigates the imperial entrapments which are designed to focus African attention only on decolonising African minds without also engaging in the imperially more unsettling decolonisation of African materialities      A Leap of Faith Jenny La Sala, 2018-11-27 A Leap of Faith is a collection of brotherhood and sisterhood of military veterans post 9 11 each with their own story to share and suffering from PTSD to IED injuries Each Soldier faced varying hurdles on their journey leading up to the military and transitioning back to civilian life The women Veterans revealed a special vulnerability undergoing the drastic change and uncomfortable truths about double standards regarding gender in the military It is our desire that these stories will deepen the understanding of how poorly the military prepares its Soldiers for the high stakes shift from deployment back to civilian life As I interviewed the men and women who served in Iraq and Afghanistan they all came back with the same message And that was after America was attacked on 9 11 they wanted to do something to help and enlisted in the military It was in that moment that I realized they each took a leap of faith not knowing what was ahead of them But they knew what they were leaving behind and were intent on protecting it hence the book title emerged as A Leap of Faith The Men and Women Who Served Post 9 11 Their faith also emerged as strength and resonates through their incredible stories Each veteran story is preceded by their favorite Psalm Army RD & A ,1964 Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2014 United States. Die a global bestseller Harvard professors Steven Levitsky and Daniel Ziblatt offer a coherent framework for understanding these volatile times They draw on a wealth of examples from 1930s France to present day Thailand to explain why and how political parties turn against democracy They then show how our Constitution makes us uniquely vulnerable to attacks from within It is a pernicious enabler of minority rule allowing partisan minorities to consistently thwart and even rule over popular majorities Most modern democracies from Germany and Sweden to Argentina and New Zealand have eliminated outdated institutions like elite upper chambers indirect elections and lifetime tenure for judges The United States lags dangerously behind In this revelatory book Levitsky and Ziblatt issue an urgent call to reform our politics It s a daunting task but we have remade our country before most notably after the Civil War and during the Progressive Era And now we are at a crossroads America will either become a multiracial democracy or cease to be a democracy at all     The Budget and Economic Outlook ,2011     The New Cyberwar Dennis F. Poindexter,2015-09-02 Carl Von Clausewitz described the purpose of war as the compulsory submission of the enemy to our will Unlike conventional military conflicts of the past war in the information age is more a battle of wills than artillery and doesn t necessarily end with decisive conclusions or clear winners Cyber warfare between nations is conducted not only without the consent or participation of citizens but often without their knowledge with little to see in the way of airstrikes and troop movements The weapons are information systems intelligence propaganda and the media The combatants are governments multinational corporations hackers and whistleblowers The battlefields are economies command and control networks election outcomes and the hearts and minds of populations As with Russia s bloodless 2014 annexation of the Crimea the cyberwar is fought before the infantry arrives Written by a United States intelligence community insider this book describes the covert aspects of modern wars and the agencies who fund and fight them     An Army of Influence Craig Stockings,Peter Dennis,2021-11-15 The importance of regional cooperation is becoming more apparent as the world moves into the third decade of the 21st century An Army of Influence is a thought provoking analysis of the Australian Army s capacity to change with a particular focus on the Asia Pacific region Written by highly regarded historians strategists and practitioners this book examines the Australian Army s influence abroad and the lessons it has learnt from its engagement across the Asia Pacific region It also explores the challenges facing the Australian Army in the future and provides principles to guide operational administrative and modernisation planning Containing full colour maps and images An Army of Influence will be of interest to both the wider defence community and general readers It underscores the importance of maintaining an ongoing presence in the region and engages with history to address the issues facing the Army both now and into the future     Budget and Economic Outlook for 1976-77 ,1976     Reawakening America: Leadership, Vigilance, and Collaboration Vincent J. Named a best book of the year by The Guardian. Enthralling, harrowing, heartbreaking, and utterly redemptive. Lindsey Fitzharris hit this one out of the park. Erik Larson, author of The Splendid and the Vile. Lindsey Fitzharris, the award-winning author of The Butchering Art, presents the compelling true story of a visionary surgeon who rebuilt the faces of the First World War's injured heroes and in the process ushered in the modern era of plastic surgery. From the moment the first machine gun rang out over the Western Front, one thing was clear: humankind's military technology had wildly surpassed its medical capabilities. Bodies were battered, gouged, hacked, and gassed. The First World War claimed millions of lives and left millions more wounded and disfigured. In the midst of this brutality, however, there were also those who strove to alleviate suffering. The Facemaker tells the extraordinary story of such an individual, the pioneering plastic surgeon Harold Gillies, who dedicated himself to reconstructing the burned and broken faces of the injured soldiers under his care. Gillies, a Cambridge-educated New Zealander, became interested in the nascent field of plastic surgery after encountering the human wreckage on the front. Returning to Britain, he established one of the world's first hospitals dedicated entirely to facial reconstruction. There, Gillies assembled a unique group of practitioners whose task was to rebuild what had been torn apart, to re-create what had been destroyed. At a time when losing a limb made a soldier a hero but losing a face made him a monster to a society largely intolerant of disfigurement, Gillies restored not just the faces of the wounded but also their spirits. The Facemaker places Gillies's ingenious surgical innovations alongside the dramatic stories of soldiers whose lives were wrecked and repaired. The result is a vivid account of how medicine can be an art and of what courage and imagination can accomplish in the presence of relentless horror      Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times, 1909      United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second
