Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016 Resources in Education ,2001 Multilingual Learning and Language Supportive Pedagogies in Sub-Saharan Africa Elizabeth J. Erling, John Clegg, Casmir M. Rubagumya, Colin Reilly, 2021-07-01 This edited collection provides unprecedented insight into the emerging field of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Multilingual education is claimed to have many benefits amongst which are that it can improve both content and language learning especially for learners who may have low ability in the medium of instruction and are consequently struggling to learn The book represents a range of Sub Saharan school contexts and describes how multilingual strategies have been developed and implemented within them to support the learning of content and language It looks at multilingual learning from several points of view including translanguaging or the use of multiple languages and especially African languages for learning and language supportive pedagogy or the implementation of a distinct pedagogy to support learners working through the medium of a second language The book puts forward strategies for creating materials classroom environments and teacher education programmes which support the use of all of a student s languages to improve language and content learning The contexts which the book describes are challenging including low school resourcing poverty and low literacy in the home and school policy which militates against the use of African languages in school The volume also draws on multilingual education approaches which have been successfully carried out in higher resource countries and lend themselves to being adapted for use in SSA It shows how multilingual learning can bring about transformation in education and provides inspiration for how these strategies might spread and be further developed to improve learning in schools in SSA and beyond Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

The Summer Slide Karl Alexander, Sarah Pitcock, Matthew C. Boulay, 2016 This book is an authoritative examination of summer learning loss featuring original contributions by scholars and practitioners at the forefront of the movement to understand and stem the summer slide The contributors provide an up to date account of what research has to say about summer learning loss the conditions in low income children s homes and communities that impede learning over the summer months and best practices in summer programming with lessons on how to strengthen program evaluations The authors also show how information on program costs can be combined with student outcome data to inform future planning and establish program cost effectiveness This book will help policymakers school administrators and teachers in their efforts to close academic achievement gaps and improve outcomes for all students Book Features Empirical research on summer learning loss and efforts to counteract it Original contributions by leading authorities Practical guidance on best practices for implementing and evaluating strong summer programs Recommendations for using program evaluations more effectively to inform policy Contributors Emily Ackman Allison Atteberry Catherine Augustine Janice Aurini Amy Bohnert Geoffrey D
