

What is Federalism?

idea: The federal system of government utilized by the United States provides both benefits and responsibilities to the states, established government by dividing powers between the levels of government.

Question: Summarize the quotation below using the information in the Lesson Commentary on this previous page. (4 points each)

Lesson 1: An Overview of the Constitution

1. Create hypotheses: What do American citizens consider popular sovereignty?

Interpretation for strategic thinking as discussed above and hypothesis: A basic rights culture is key component of our rule.

2. Analyze the Chapter 1 that details the system of checks and balances, the process of the government and ultimately the system. Do you agree with this system? Why or why not? Yes, I agree that the government is needed and ultimately better than if there were no checks and balances. However, without the proper checks and balances, our country would be in a state of chaos and the government would be in a state of chaos. The system of checks and balances is needed to ensure that the government is not too powerful and that the government is not too powerful. The system of checks and balances is needed to ensure that the government is not too powerful and that the government is not too powerful.

Lesson 2: Amending the Constitution

3. Compare and Contrast What is similar about why Congress wanted to change the Constitution? What are the methods of changing the Constitution today?

Both Congress and the states (initially) change the Constitution through the process of proposing, and then legislative branch (House and Senate) process.

There are two different forms of amendment. Congress can propose to amend the Constitution through the process of proposing, and then legislative branch (House and Senate) process. The states can propose to amend the Constitution through the process of proposing, and then legislative branch (House and Senate) process.

4. Identify Causes and Effects: How might it contribute to the Constitution have
