Don't Feed the Bears Don Levin,2009-12-22 Even the best of parents with the purest and most idealistic intentions to provide a better life for their children can set them up for failure by confusing better with easier So how do we provide our children with the opportunities and tools for greater success without spoiling them How do we insure that we have positioned them for this greater standard of living without overly indulging them No doubt it is a balancing act and requires planning forethought and consistency It also requires a long term vision short term goals and an incredible degree of hard work on the part of both parents working in unison to provide a stable foundation It means not sacrificing teaching experiences when an easier choice or route presents itself It means that from the day that youngster is born you plan on working hard making a plan and then working your plan as parents It means modeling the way by living an exemplary life of courage integrity and character It requires a positive attitude through which we can constantly encourage their hearts It means establishing standards and requirements and enforcing them A newly planted tree can be straightened or held in place with the thinnest of wires However if we ignore the crooked sapling for any length of time it is often too late and too difficult to make a change when it has had a chance to grow in ways contrary to those that we desire Children require constant nourishment to the soul probably even more than they need to have their physical needs met by us Remembering this is often our greatest challenge If you are a parent you need to read this book Chris Sorensen Author of The Greatest Discovery      Encyclopedia of Lifestyle Medicine and Health James M.
