The South African Quarterly, 1923 Congo Basin Hydrology, Climate, and Biogeochemistry Raphael M. Tshimanga, Guy D. Moukandi N'kaya, Douglas Alsdorf, 2022-02-08 New scientific discoveries in the Congo Basin as a result of international collaborations The Congo is the world's second largest river basin and home to 120 million people Understanding the cycling of water sediments and nutrients is important as the region faces climatic and anthropogenic change Congo Basin Hydrology Climate and Biogeochemistry A Foundation for the Future explores variations in and influences on rainfall hydrology and hydraulics and sediment and carbon dynamics It features contributions from experts in the region and their international collaborators Volume highlights include New in situ and remotely sensed measurements and model results Use of historic data to assess precipitation and hydrologic changes Exploration of water exchange between wetlands and rivers Biogeochemical processes in the Congo's forests and wetlands A scientific foundation for hydrologic resource management in the region Studies from different parts of the Congo river and its adjoining basins This book is available in English and French The American Geophysical Union promotes discovery in Earth and space science for the benefit of humanity Its publications disseminate scientific knowledge and provide resources for researchers students and professionals Find out more about this book in this short video and this article The West and China in Africa Alemayehu Mekonnen, 2015-11-13 The West and China in Africa Civilization without Justice is an outcome of Dr Alemayehu Mekonnen's personal intellectual struggle life experience and an attempt to understand Christ and his message within the cultural context of Africa The intellectual struggle has to do with the paradoxical reality of Africa's situation An attempt to reconcile the seemingly irreconcilable situation of Africa tests and stretches anyone's mind beyond limit According to archaeological and geological findings Africa is the first habitat of humanity and yet it is the least habitable place in the world today The continent is extremely rich with natural resources but it is known for poverty disease malnutrition and starvation As some Afro-centric scholars argue Africa is the birthplace of world civilization and yet it is known for destruction Social instability is rampant coup d'etat and counter coup d'etat is common Displacement and the number of refugees are ever increasing As a person of African origin and now a US citizen Mekonnen was able to see realities objectively in the eyes of an African and American This book explores the myth and reality of Western Eastern and African dictators role in the history of Africa

Goldthwaite's Geographical Magazine Cyrus Cornelius Adams, 1891 Decentralization, Democracy, and Development in Africa Jan Erk, 2018-12-07 Decentralization reforms introduced to Africa in the 1990s have not always delivered the intended long term outcomes This is a collection on the consequences of these reforms two decades on In addition to general and comparative overviews the book contains case studies on Ghana Senegal Zimbabwe Namibia Ethiopia and Uganda The common theme across the chapters is that the reforms seem to have engendered political consequences beyond decentralization itself mostly through interaction with the broader historical political social and economic context

The book thus speaks both to the scholarly literature on decentralization democratization and development and to the community of development practitioners Most of the literature on decentralization and development emphasizes questions of institutional design and policy but here the harder to pin down political patterns marking the workings of decentralization are the main focus of analysis The debates on development through the case studies are connected to the scholarly literatures on comparative federalism comparative decentralization and local democracy The main conclusion that emerges from the studies in the book is that no magic formula that can turn countries into peaceful stable and prosperous democracies overnight exists Furthermore there are risks involved in importing formal institutions without regard to the local historical political social and economic context The chapters of this book were originally published as a special issue in Regional and Federal Studies Resources in Education ,1987 British Narratives of Exploration Frédéric Regard,2015-10-06 Features a collection of essays that focus on British travel narratives from the seventeenth through to the nineteenth centuries This work investigates how the early explorers sense of self was destabilised by encounters with the Other The Mutual Review of Development Effectiveness in Africa 2015 Promise and Performance OECD,United Nations Economic Commission for Africa,2015-11-03 In order to maintain the strong progress achieved since 2000 and meet Africa s longer term challenges it is important for both African governments and their international partners to meet their development commitments and to monitor and evaluate their results Women, Literature and Development in Africa Anthonia C. Kalu,2019-12-09 This book is a powerful exploration of the role of women in the evolution of African thinking and narratives on development from the precolonial period right through to the modern day Whilst the book identifies women s oppression and marginalization as significant challenges to contemporary Africa s advancement it also explores how new written narratives draw on traditional African knowledge systems to bring deep rooted and sometimes radical approaches to progress The book asserts that Africans must tell their own stories expressed through the complex meanings and nuances of African languages and often conveyed through oral traditions and storytelling in which women play an important role The book s close examination of language and meaning in the African narrative tradition advances the illumination and elevation of African storytelling as part of a viable and valid knowledge base in its own right rather than as an extension of European paradigms and methods Anthonia C Kalu s new edition of this important book fully revised throughout will also include fresh analysis of the role of digital media education and religion in African narratives At a time when the prominence and participation of African women in development and sociopolitical debates is growing this book s exploration of their lived experiences and narrative contribution will be of interest to students of African literature gender studies development history and sociology Hot Topics in Infection and Immunity in Children IX Nigel Curtis,Adam Finn,Andrew J. Pollard,2012-12-12 Hot Topics in Infection and Immunity IX English Ethnicity and Race in Early Modern Drama Mary Floyd-Wilson,2003-02-20 In English Ethnicity and Race in Early Modern Drama first published in 2003 Mary Floyd Wilson outlines what we might call scientific conceptions of racial and ethnic differences in sixteenth and seventeenth century English writing Drawing on classical and contemporary medical texts histories and cosmographies Floyd Wilson demonstrates that Renaissance understandings of racial and ethnic identities contradicted many modern stereotypes concerning difference Southerners Africans in particular were identified as dispassionate cool tempered and wise whereas the more northern English were understood to be unruly impressionable and slow witted Concerned with the unflattering and constraining implications of this classically derived knowledge English writers laboured to reinvent ethnology to their own advantage a labour that paved the way for the invention of more familiar racial ideas Floyd Wilson highlights these English revisionary efforts in her surprising and transformational readings of the period s drama including Marlowe s Tamburlaine Jonson s The Masque of Blackness and Shakespeare s Othello and Cymbeline

At Home in Shakespeare's Tragedies Geraldo U. de Sousa, 2016-04-15 Bringing together methods assumptions and approaches from a variety of disciplines Geraldo U de Sousa s innovative study explores the representation perception and function of the house home household and family life in Shakespeare s great tragedies Concentrating on King Lear Hamlet Othello and Macbeth de Sousa s examination of the home provides a fresh look at material that has been the topic of fierce debate Through a combination of textual readings and a study of early modern housing conditions accompanied by analyses that draw on anthropology architecture art history the study of material culture social history theater history phenomenology and gender studies this book demonstrates how Shakespeare explores the materiality of the early modern house and evokes domestic space to convey interiority reflect on the habits of the mind interrogate everyday life and register elements of the tragic journey Specific topics include the function of the disappearance of the castle in King Lear the juxtaposition of home centered life in Venice and nomadic unhoused wandering in Othello and the use of special lighting effects to reflect this relationship Hamlet s psyche in response to physical space and the redistribution of domestic space in Macbeth Images of the house home and household become visually and emotionally vibrant and thus reflect define and support a powerful tragic narrative

In Hot Pursuit of Language in Prehistory John D. Bengtson, 2008 Compiled in honor and celebration of veteran anthropologist Harold C Fleming this book contains 23 articles by anthropologists in the general sense from the four main disciplines of prehistory archaeology biogenetics paleoanthropology and genetic historical linguistics Because of Professor Fleming s major focus on language he founded the Association for the Study of Language in Prehistory and the journal Mother Tongue the content of the book is heavily tilted toward the study of human language its origins historical development and taxonomy Because of Fleming s extensive field experience in Africa some of the articles deal with African topics This volume is intended to exemplify the principle in the words of Fleming himself that each of the four disciplines is enriched when it combines with any one of the other four The authors are representative of the cutting edge of their respective fields and this book is unusual in including contributions from a wide range of anthropological fields rather than concentrating in any one of them

A Cultural

History of Race in the Reformation and Enlightenment Nicholas Hudson, 2023-06-01 The period between the 16th and 18th centuries witnessed the expansion of European travel trade and colonization around the globe resulting in greatly increased contact between Westerners and peoples throughout the rest of the world With the rise of print and the commercial book market Europeans avidly consumed reports of the outside world and its various peoples often in distorted or fictional forms With the consolidation of new empirical science and taxonomy prejudice against peoples of different colours and cultures during the 16th and 17th centuries became more systematic giving rise to the doctrines of race science Although humanitarianism and the idea of human rights also flourished inspiring the campaign to abolish the slave trade this movement did not hinder imperialist expansion and the belief that humans could be ranked in a hierarchy that authorized White domination The essays in this volume trace the complex pattern of intellectual and cultural change from popular bigotry in the Age of Shakespeare to the racial categories developed in the works of Buffon and Kant These essays also link changes in racial thinking to other trends during this age The development of modern ideas of race corresponded with emerging conceptions of the nation state new acceptance of religious diversity became linked with speculations on racial diversity transforming ideologies of gender and sexuality overlapped in crucial ways with developing racial attitudes In many ways the period between the Reformation and Enlightenment laid the foundations for modern racial thinking generating issues and conflicts that still haunt us today Ebony ,1976-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Volcanic Rifted Margins Martin A.
