Understanding Conflict and Change in a Multicultural World H. Roy Kaplan,2014-05-09 Learning about the history of cultural conflict helps teachers reduce it in classrooms This book shows our common origins and reviews sources of conflict in the former Yugoslavia Northern Ireland and the Middle East It reveals how prejudice and stereotypes about racial and religious minorities create problems in our schools Beginning with the human exodus out of Africa 60 000 years ago tension arose among ethnic groups separated by geographic barriers Changes in population immigration work and the role of religion are creating clashes in society and schools Students from different cultural backgrounds are being thrown together as mass transportation and telecommunications shrink our world Inclusive classrooms with respectful learning environments can be achieved when we identify the sources of tension that separate and divide us Students are more alike than different Knowing about our common origin and challenges will help teachers become more effective

Multicultural Education in Global Era Kyoung-Ho Shin,2016 This book is a collection of scholarly works that give us an overview of how theory research and practices in the field of multiculturalism and multicultural education are advancing and developing in the era of globalisation today The authors of each chapter in this volume illustrate the ways globalisation as a social change on a world scale affects theoretical conceptualisations and various modes of intersections between multiculturalism and social factors of race gender and language in contemporary societies A diversity of conceptual analyses and practices of multiple cases for the advancement in the processes of curriculum development to embrace the elements of global multiculturalism are offered in the volume The curriculum in higher education needs to include global issues and multiculturalism which reaches into the meanings of global capital flights and implications of domestic crises of culture It is because global education in universities and colleges involves dimensions of curricula adjustment assessments and feedback and communications among students teachers and the community When multicultural education has global components that help students develop cosmopolitan attitudes and become effective world citizens students are able to develop a multiple number of allegiances to their racial or ethnic group their own nation and the globe
