Multilingual Encounters in Europe's Institutional Spaces Johann Wolfgang Unger, Michał Krzyżanowski, Ruth Wodak, 2014 Multilingual Encounters in Europe's Institutional Spaces Johann W. Unger, Michał Krzyżanowski, Ruth Wodak, 2014-02-27 Multilingual encounters have been commonplace in many types of institutions and have become an essential part of supranational institutions such as the EU since their inception This volume explores and discusses different ways of researching the discursive dimension of these encounters and critically examines their relevance to policy politics and society as a whole This includes institutions at the local regional and supranational level Multilingualism in institutions is currently often seen as an obstacle rather than an opportunity at least with respect to European public and private spheres The volume asks exactly how is multilingualism conceptualized and talked about in different institutions how do different institutions deal with multilingualism both internally and externally what are the policy making rules and challenges for the future for various institutions with respect to multilingualism European Identities in Discourse Franco Zappettini, 2019-05-02 Based on empirical research this book closely analyses how European identities are discursively produced It focuses on discourse from members of a civic association active in promoting democracy and attempting participation in the transnational public sphere Unlike previous books that have addressed the question of European identity from top down stances or through methodological nationalism this book engages with the multifaceted concept of transnationalism as a key to the negotiation of glocal identities Applying a discourse historical approach DHA through a transnational reading it shows how grassroots actors speakers construct their different cultural and political affiliations as both world and European citizens They negotiate institutional identities and historical discourses of nationhood through new forms of mobility cultural diversity and the imagination of Europe as a proxy for a cosmopolitan civil society These discourses are ever more important in a fractured and polarised Europe falling prey to contrary discourses of nationhood and ethnic solidarity Highlighting how transnational narratives of solidarity and the de territorialisation of civic participation can impact on the re imagination of the European community beyond tropes like Fortress Europe or intragovernmental politics this important book shows how identification processes must be read through historical and global as well as localised contexts An Introduction to Multilingualism Florian Coulmas, 2018 This book offers an introduction to the many facets of multilingualism in a changing world It begins with an overview of the multiplicity of human languages and their geographic distribution before moving on to the key question of what multilingualism actually is and what is understood by terms such as mother tongue native speaker and speech community In the chapters that follow Florian Coulmas systematically explores multilingualism with respect to the individual institutions cities nations and cyberspace In each of these domains the dynamics of language choice are undergoing changes as a result of economic political and cultural forces Against this background two chapters discuss the effects of linguistic diversity on the integration and separation of language and society

English to fit into their new homes once they have arrived in the UK English in Business and Commerce Tamah Sherman, Jiri Nekvapil, 2018-05-07 This volume fills an important gap in exploring English in the domains of business and commerce through the prism of sociolinguistics and the sociology of language as opposed to analyzing business genres or taking a linguodidactic approach It expands the regional coverage of English in Europe with several studies based in Central Europe and also considers contexts which interact with Europe even though they are physically outside of it Asia Africa It addresses English as just one of several languages at play in the ecology of the countries It focuses not only on the position of languages as declared in documents of various organizations that is language policy but also everyday linguistic practices as observed in business contexts that is interactions The studies are divided into three thematic areas ideologies and discourses on English in the business sphere the management of English in business and organizational contexts and English and other languages on local and international labor markets It will be of interest to readers concerned with multilingualism in the economic sphere and the workplace and the interplay between macro and micro levels during the management of communication in organizations Discursive Approaches to Language Policy Elisabeth Barakos, Johann W. Jonker, Angelika Berlejung, Izak Cornelius, 2021-05-03 Multilingualism remains a thorny issue in many contexts be it cultural political or educational Debates and discourses on this issue in contexts of diversity particularly in multicultural societies but also in immigration situations are often conducted with present day communicational and educational needs in mind or with political and identity agendas This is nothing new There are a vast number of witnesses from the ancient West Asian and Mediterranean world attesting to the same debates in long past societies Could an investigation into the linguistic landscapes of ancient societies shed any light on our present day debates and discourses This volume suggests that this is indeed the case In fourteen chapters written and visual sources of the ancient world are investigated and explored by scholars specialising in those fields of study to engage in an interdisciplinary discourse with modern day debates about multilingualism A final chapter by an expert in language in education responds critically to the contributions in the book to
