Banks, Exchanges, and Regulators Ranald C. Michie, 2020-11-26 Never have financial markets been subjected to a period of change as rapid and extensive as took place from the 1970s onwards In the 1970s global financial markets were controlled by governments compartmentalized along national boundaries and segregated according to the particular activities they engaged in This all disintegrated in the decades that followed under the pressure of market forces global integration and a revolution in the technology of trading One product of this transformation was the Global Financial Crisis of 2008 which exposed the fragility of the new structures created and cast a long shadow that we still live in today The response to that crisis has shaped the global financial system which has been tested once again by the coronavirus pandemic However none of the outcomes of this transformation were inevitable despite the forces at work They were the product of decisions taken at the time for a multitude of reasons Banks exchanges and regulators were faced with unprecedented challenges and opportunities as a revolution swept away traditional ways of conducting banking the methods used to trade in financial markets and the rules and regulations employed to enforce discipline In this book Ranald C Michie provides an authoritative and unrivalled account of this upheaval based on a careful and exhaustive reading of the Financial Times over the last four decades using it to provide a source of material unmatched by any other in terms of depth and coverage By studying what happened and why in real time it is possible to explain the decisions taken that shaped the course of the transformation and its repercussions

volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada Ebony, 2005-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine
