This edited volume adopts a new angle on the study of Spanish in the United States one that transcends the use of Spanish as an ethnic language and explores it as a language spreading across new domains education public spaces and social media It aims to position Spanish in the United States in the wider frame of global multilingualism and in line with new perspectives of analysis such as superdiversity translanguaging indexicality and multimodality All the 15 chapters analyze Spanish use as an instance of social change in the sense that monolingual cultural reproduction changes and produces cultural transformation Furthermore these chapters represent five macro regions of the United States the Southwest the West the Midwest the Northeast and the Southeast Children's Creative Inquiry in STEM Karen Janette Murcia,Coral

Campbell,Mathilda Marie Joubert,Sinead Wilson,2022-04-05 This edited volume brings together international research that explores children's creativity in STEM inquiry. It takes the position that creativity is relevant in all aspects of life and is essential for adaptable and innovative thinking. The research-informed content of the book highlights both challenges and opportunities for growing children's creativity. The book focuses on fostering children's creativity and natural curiosity in the world around them through STEM inquiry. Through STEM inquiry, children are learning through a cross-disciplinary approach where they apply concepts from multiple fields as they are thinking creatively, problem-solving, and constructing solutions. Educators play a critical role in encouraging children's creativity by modelling creativity, providing creative projects for children, and importantly, establishing rich culturally connected environments where children have the resources, conditions, and opportunities for acting and thinking creatively. The book provides a lens for looking at children's creativity in a range of different cultural settings. It offers insight and guidance to future research and will build educators' capacity for developing children's creative practices.
