Broadwater,2007-10-22 There have been all kinds of explanations suggested for what happened at Pentecost When God first poured out his Spirit s Life upon the church it became obvious that God was at work Many explanations of what happened at Pentecost have reduced this spiritual phenomenon to a list of things we ought to be doing What this approach to ministry forgets is that Pentecost was not about what we need to be doing It is about what God was doing and what God continues to do by bringing Christ to dwell within God s people Pentecost show us that you can't reduce the mystery of life in the Spirit to a ministry model that can be duplicated whenever we want. If it could, it wouldn't have happened by now in America. May I ask you to consider whether any ministry program has brought lasting revival to this nation? What I believe we have seen is the hope for revival being shared and we are very passionate about that. But our passion or our programs will not produce life in us or in others. Only God can do that. What we need is a fundamental transformation of our lives and ministries. Only the Spirit of God can cause a person to be born again (John 3:5-7). Only the Spirit of God can enable a walk with Jesus (Galatians 3:1-3). And only the Spirit of God can bring about the awakening and revival that this nation needs (Acts 4:31). Pentecost teaches us that it is not about having the right model for ministry. If anyone had a model for ministry that could not be improved upon, it was Israel. God told Moses to make their ministry after the pattern he had seen on the Mountain as he met with God (Exodus 25:9-40). And while this ministry was to be preformed, it had no power to transform the lives of those believers who faithfully sought to maintain its ritual because their hearts could not be changed by the outward observance of any law (Hebrews 7:19). The author of the Epistle to the Hebrews puts it this way: "This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: 'See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.' (Hebrews 8:5). But God found fault with the people and said, 'The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt because they did not remain faithful to my covenant and I turned away from them. This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord: I will put my laws in their minds and write them upon their hearts. I will be their God and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor or a man his brother saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me from the least of them to the greatest. For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.' By calling this covenant new, he has made the first one obsolete, and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear (Hebrews 8:8-13). So it is not about getting our model for ministry right or about having the right program or is it about knowing Christ and walking as he did, but only the Spirit's presence in our lives can do that. The book of Acts shows this over and over again. Luke had already written the gospel named after him and he refers to this as my former book when he starts his preface in Acts (Acts 1:1). He says that the gospel of Luke recorded all that Jesus began to do and to teach until the day he was taken up to heaven. He then wrote Acts which recorded what Jesus continued to do and teach except now it is through the agency of the church as empowered by his Holy Spirit. Luke's record is a diary of what happened as God's presence returned to earth with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the church. Jesus was on the throne in glory but he

Chock full of pithy sayings, the book of Proverbs presents ancient Israelite advice for leading a flourishing life. What is more, it apparently preserves four divisions of an ancient curriculum for cultivating youthful character: teaching reverence toward God and faithful love of our neighbours. In this comprehensive commentary, Paul Overland examines Proverbs not as a loose collection of isolated sayings but as an organised whole that forms a series of cohesive poems Along with a fresh annotated translation of each saying he offers detailed commentary on the form and structure of the text showing the dynamic development of persuasive thinking marshalled by its author Exploring the practical implications for living wisely today as well offering cogent analysis this is a Bible commentary on Proverbs that will benefit all preachers and serious students of the Bible Part of the Apollos Old Testament commentary series Proverbs follows a clear helpful structure that provides a thorough exploration of the text beginning with translation and notes examining form and structure offering insightful commentary and ending with a full exposition of the theological message within the framework of biblical theology It will leave you with a deeper knowledge of the divine and human aspects of Scripture as well as a broader understanding of its meaning and continued relevance for modern Christians The Apollos Old Testament Commentaries are ideal bible commentaries for those preaching from the Old Testament and looking to explore its riches in depth within their sermons and will also help lay people and scholars studying the Bible at a higher level Clear and discerning Paul Overland s commentary on Proverbs is a brilliant study that will give you a profound appreciation for both the poetry of these sayings and the lessons that they can still Christians today
