Fees Structure For First Year Students Moi University 2015:

New Pathways to Job Creation and Development in Africa Haroon Bhorat, Brahim Coulibaly, Richard Newfarmer, John Page, 2025-05-06 Creating productive jobs for growing a labor force is both one of the world's greatest challenges as well as one of its greatest economic opportunities and one of the most consequential global megatrends. Nowhere is the job creation challenge more acute than for young people in Africa. In response to this challenge and to also address Africa's structural economic transformation, the Africa Growth Initiative at Brookings has undertaken research on the prospects for large-scale job creation through the development of industries without smokestacks including tourism, agro-processing, horticulture, and services that has revealed a promising path forward. This book is the first to document the potential for non-traditional industries to address the formal sector job creation that is critical for Africa to simultaneously harness its demographic dividend and achieve structural transformation. In the face of premature deindustrialization, many economists have voiced pessimism about Africa's ability to replicate past economic development models. The book also documents the potential of an alternative economic development model for Africa based on industries without smokestacks. Finally, the book suggests practical policy solutions to realize the potential of these industries. Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 The rapid growth of Christianity in the global south is not just a demographic shift; it is transforming the faith itself. The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the history and the contemporary themes of Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions. It includes maps, images, and a detailed timeline of key events.

Corruption Scandals and their Global Impacts Omar E. Hawthorne, Stephen Magu, 2018-05-11 Corruption scandals receive significant press coverage and scrutiny from practitioners of global governance and bilateral and multilateral donors. Across the globe, the annual publication of TI's CPI and World Bank's Worldwide Governance Indicators elicits spirited denials and accusations of targeting of neo-colonialism. Poor measures on corruption indices and the ensuing negative publicity can have serious consequences both externally through a freeze or retraction of donor funding and internally through reducing the availability of public funds and harming the credibility of serving governments and institutions. Corruption Scandals and their Global Impacts tracks several major corruption scandals across the world in a comparative analysis to assess the full impact of global corruption. Over the course of the book, the contributors deliberate the exposure and reporting of corruption scandals, demonstrate how corruption inhibits development on different levels and across different countries, the impact it has on the country in question, how citizens and authorities respond to corruption, and some local, regional, and global policy and legislative measures to combat corruption. The chapters examine the transnational manifestation of corruption scandals around the world from developed countries and regions such as the United States and the European Union to BRIC countries, Brazil and Russia, to developing countries such as Belarus, Jamaica, Kenya, and Nigeria. In each case, chapters highlight the scandal, its impact, the local, regional, and global responses, and the subsequent global perceptions of the country Concluding with a review of the global impacts of corruption scandals this book provides an important comparative analysis which will be useful to students and scholars of international development and politics as well as to development practitioners donors politicians and policy makers Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia Kerry J. Kennedy, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2018-05-11 This comprehensive handbook is the ultimate reference work providing authoritative and international overviews of all aspects of schools and schooling in Asia Split into 19 sections it covers curriculum learning and assessment private supplementary tutoring special education gender issues ethnic minority education and LGBTQI students in Asian schools The volume displays the current state of the scholarship for schools and schooling in Asia including emerging controversial and cutting edge contributions using a thematic approach The content offers a broad sweep of the region with a focus on theoretical cultural and political issues as well as identifying educational issues and priorities such as curriculum assessment teacher education school leadership etc all of which impact students and learning in multiple ways The Routledge International Handbook of Schools and Schooling in Asia brings together experts in each area to contribute their knowledge providing a multidimensional and rich view of the issues confronting the region's school and education systems Chapters 34 35 36 37 and 38 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Power in Language, Culture, Literature and Education Marta Degani, Werner Delanoy, 2023-04-24 In one of the contributions to this edited volume an interviewee argues that English is power For researchers in the field of English Studies this raises the questions of where the power of English resides and which types and practices of power are implied in the uses of English Linguists scholars of literature and culture and language educators address aspects of these questions in a wide range of contributions The book shows that the power of English can oscillate between empowerment and subjection on the one hand enabling humans to develop manifold capabilities and on the other constraining their scope of action and reflection In this edited volume a case is made for self-critical English Studies to be dialogic empowering and power-critical in approach

Urban Religious Events Paul Bramadat, Mar Griera, Marian Burchardt, Julia Martinez-Ariño, 2021-04-08 How might we best understand the relationship between the vibrant religious landscapes we see in many cities and contemporary urban social processes Through case studies drawn from around the world contributors explore the ways in which these processes interact in cities This book argues that religious events including rituals processions and festivals are not only choreographies of sacred traditions but they are also creative disruptions that reveal how urban cultural hierarchies are experienced and contested Exposing the power dynamics behind these events this book shows how performative uses of urban space serve to destabilize dominant genealogies and lineages around urban identities just as they lay claims to cultural supremacy or heritage Through exploring the affective disruptions and political controversies caused by religious events the contributors engage theoretical discussions in urban studies the sociology of religion and the ethnography of ritual This book is a significant contribution to understanding emerging patterns in contemporary religion and also for theories related to heritagization eventization and urbanization EBGC 2019 Reiga Ritomiea Ariescy, Luqita Romaisyah, Devy Sylvia Puspitasari, Agus Setyawan, Firmansyah Wibowo, 2020-02-10 Hosted by the Economic and Business Faculty of UPN Veteran East Java International Conference on Economics Business and Government Challenges ICEBGC provide as a creative event for academicians and practitioners whose interest Economic Business and Government studies to get interconnected with other academicians and other fields of study It is also intended to be an annual event for scholars from various backgrounds to connect and initiate collaborative and interdisciplinary studies The papers presented at the ICEBGC provide research findings and recommendations that are both directly and indirectly beneficial for society needs especially policy makers and practitioners in the Economics topic The 2nd ICEBGC 2019 was held in heroes city called Surabaya Indonesia bringing up a theme of Management and Shifting Era as a response to the modern and dynamics of Management in this shifting era This theme aims at looking more closely on how the relations between Economic Management Business and Government in this region and that of the global world is especially on the shifting discourses from Management as a social fact to the newly emerging Economic and Government digital landscape It is indeed an emerging situation and a robust area for research Some compelling sub themes were offered and participated by a great number of presenters and participants including among others are Cultural Transformation Literature Review a women s equality in E Commerce Human Development Index Assessing Financial Performance Budgeting Analysis Model Green Accounting Self Management and Nationalism They share their insights study results or literature studies on those topics in a very dynamic discussion Critical Perspectives on Teaching in the Multilingual University Ibrar Bhatt, Khawla Badwan, Mbulungeni Madiba, 2024-11-18 This book critically and reflectively engages with the Language Problem in the contemporary multilingual university It paints a complex picture of the lived multilingual realities of teachers and students in universities across geographies such as Pakistan Timor Leste South Korea Bangladesh Somaliland Afghanistan Fiji Colombia and the UK including Northern Ireland and focuses on three overall analytic themes language and colonial epistemologies language policies and practices and language and research Globalisation global knowledge economy and neoliberal governance has significantly impacted higher education by elevating colonial languages particularly English to a global academic lingua franca Universities now collaborate and compete globally with English emerging as the dominant language for education and research The imposition or uncritical adoption of English poses profound political cultural and epistemic challenges for those who have to use the language in everyday university administration research and teaching and also intertwines with issues of race gender coloniality and social class This volume addresses this as higher education s multifaceted Language Problem which requires interdisciplinary collaboration and critical debate and ultimately aims towards understanding multilingualism in higher education across both the Global North and South The contributions to this book continue to remind us of the coloniality of language and of the linguistic

Russian Style Julie A. Cassiday, 2023-12-19 In the two decades after the turn of the millennium Vladimir Putin's control over Russian politics and society grew at a steady pace As the West liberalized its stance on sexuality and gender Putin's Russia moved in the opposite direction remolding the performance of Russian citizenship according to a neoconservative agenda characterized by increasingly exaggerated gender roles By connecting gendered and sexualized citizenship to developments in Russian popular culture Julie A Cassiday argues that heteronormativity and homophobia became a kind of politicized style under Putin's leadership However while the multiple modes of gender performativity generated in Russian popular culture between 2000 and 2010 supported Putin's neoconservative agenda they also helped citizens resist and protest the state's mandate of heteronormativity Examining everything from memes to the Eurovision Song Contest and self help literature Cassiday untangles the discourse of gender to argue that drag or travesti became the performative trope par excellence in Putin's Russia Provocatively Cassiday further argues that the exaggerated expressions of gender demanded by Putin's regime are best understood as a form of cisgender drag This smart and lively study provides critical nuanced analysis of the relationship between popular culture and politics in Russia during Putin's first two decades in power
