Humanitarian handicraft Rebecca Gill, Claire Barber, Helen Dampier, Bertrand Taithe, 2025-10-07 This book uncovers the overlooked history of artisanal textiles in projects aimed at social uplift and moral reform The contributors ask what the implications of this form of gendered craft production are for our understanding of the humanitarian imagination relations of humanitarian production and the generation of meaning and social and artistic value It also opens a dialogue with contemporary socially engaged textile artists to engender critical reflection on the socially situated meaning of textile craft in past and present humanitarian contexts

Where Orioles Nest and Crocus Bloom Brenda Dowell, 2021-06-28 The compiled articles in Where Orioles Nest and Crocuses Bloom track almost 125 years of life in Western Canada reaching way back to the early 1900s and travelling forward to present day The book is divided into four sections Our Family Our Area Our History and Our Traditions Each is populated with short articles and in some cases photographs whose preoccupations range from a renowned paleontologist named Barnum Brown to the pleasures of making Izzy dolls destined for needy children throughout the world Where Orioles Nest and Crocuses Bloom celebrates the natural world of one of the most beautiful parts of Canada Mostly published originally in prairie magazines this writerly bouquet is the product of the author s freelance writing after she retired from teaching and began to document life in and around the small Albertan community she calls home Here she uses careful lovely words to commemorate the area's people particularly those who give their time to volunteering animals plants history and all the special places that have made this natural setting interesting to her Although there is a distinct agricultural community flavour to the book's contents the themes explored in Where Orioles Nest and Crocuses Bloom would find comfortable lodging throughout Canada and the United States

Drinking Patterns and Their Consequences Marcus Grant, Jorge Litvak, 1998 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare's most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory

BUY A GAIL KEO DOLL (air Assault) Rain S Chetdav, 2005-03 The Japanese new fangled regime publicized itself as a self sufficient self sustaining entity freed from big brother USA and the United Nations sphere of influence asserting itself as anti big brother USA and realigning its sphere of influence with North Korea and China A more severe and brutal blow to big brother USA and the Marshal Plan Taiwan had effectively expelled the US UN forces from its soil Taipei its military paralleled to that of the Japanese declared itself free from big brother USA and UN's supremacy authority and sphere of influence The Chinese had productively formed the Communist Asian Pack with Japan and Taiwan the three communist countries and communist North Korea forming the CAP were strongly behind Pyongyang and its passion of turning South Korea into a communist country and reuniting the North and South to outline Seoul and Pyongyang into one Korea a Communist Korea once Seoul fell to Pyongyang China had guaranteed Taipei 150 years of independence free from China's sphere of influence and authoritarianism That was what the Taiwanese have wanted for years independence from mainland China a package that was too good to pass on a promise that big brother USA UN cannot proffer The Korean War's sonata more rapidly than the speed of light forced its resonance into us with the proverbial reverberations of fighter air assaults howitzer artillery helicopter gunships rocket propelled grenades machineguns small arm cannons revolvers and rifles boom thump swish ka boom bang bang bang bang bang papa papa papa and on and on and on

The Complete Tales of Merry Gold Kate Bernheimer, 2006 A sequel to The Complete Tales of Ketzia Gold the novel follows Merry from her suburban childhood through design school and a whirlwind of lovers and into a desolate adulthood Beginning with a toy seal and ending with mushrooms this fairy tale set in modern times creeps through cruelty and violence to its inevitable end

Cutting a Figure Richard J. Powell, 2008 Examining portraits of black people over the past two centuries Cutting a Figure argues that these images should be viewed as a distinct category of portraiture that differs significantly from depictions of people with other racial and ethnic backgrounds The difference Richard Powell contends lies in the social capital that stems directly from the black subject's power to subvert dominant racist representations by evincing such traits as self composure self adornment and self imagining Powell forcefully supports this argument with evidence drawn from a survey of nineteenth century portraits in depth case studies of the postwar fashion model Donyale Luna and the contemporary portraitist Barkley L Hendricks and insightful analyses of images created since the late 1970s Along the way he discusses major artists such as Fr d ric Bazille John Singer Sargent James Van Der Zee and David Hammons alongside such overlooked producers of black visual culture as the Tonka and Nike corporations Combining previously unpublished images with scrupulous archival research Cutting a Figure illuminates the ideological nature of the genre and the centrality of race and cultural identity in understanding modern and contemporary portraiture Raising the World Sara Fieldston,2015-03-09 Sara Fieldston shows how humanitarian child welfare agencies sponsored by Americans filtered political power through the prism of familial love after World War II These well meaning institutions shaped perceptions of the United States as the benevolent parent in a family of nations and helped to expand American hegemony around the globe

A View of the English Editions, Translations and Illustrations of the Ancient Greek and Latin Authors: With Remarks Lewis William Brüggemann,2023-11-29 Psychology in Africa (Psychology Revivals) Mallory Wober,2014-06-17 It is now well over a hundred and fifty years since the first celebrated geographical explorations of Africa took place However it was many years before there began quests of a different kind the investigation of behaviour personality attitude and ability among Africa s people Originally published in 1975 this book is an account of that work the first explorations in Africa of psychology In an exhaustive and well documented report the author a psychologist who had himself done research in Nigeria Uganda and who had lectured at Makerere University drew together the main threads of the research carried out so far putting the issues in an African perspective but anchoring them firmly within the framework of modern psychological thinking and technique of the time Are there any common personality and intellectual characteristics among Africans How does weaning affect African child development How have Africans feelings developed about city life and industrial work The questions the author considers range from the broad based to the specific The challenges which lay ahead for African investigators then moving into the mainstream of the work are also discussed But perhaps above all the book made a convincing case for psychology becoming a relevant and finely honed discipline in Black Africa characterised by practical application to Black African society Each chapter covers a defined area of modern psychology of the time and presents a comprehensive survey in a language no more technical than the subject warrants At the time it was felt this book would be invaluable to students of Africa secondary education whose course included a psychology component and to African students beginning a degree course in psychology It would also have provided an informative supplement to courses in medicine development studies political science sociology and anthropology Who's who in America ,2003 Sheikh's Castaway Alexandra Sellers,2010-10-01 After learning she d beenbetrayed by her fianc Princess Noor skipped outon her own wedding andwound up stranded on aremote island with noneother than the man she was trying to avoid But herintended was nothing if not determined and Noorsoon discovered that try as she might ignoring herfeelings for sexy Sheikh Bari al Khalid was somethingeven a royal couldn t do As their time on the island stretched from hoursinto days Noor could no longer resist her passionfor Bari regardless of the consequences it wouldhave on their future

War Imagery in Women's Textiles Deborah A. Deacon, Paula E. Calvin, 2014-07-02 Through the centuries women have used textiles to express their ideas and political opinions creating items of utility that also function as works of art Beginning with medieval European embroideries and tapestries such as the Bayeux Tapestry this book examines the ways in which women around the world have recorded the impact of war on their lives using traditional fabric art forms of knitting sewing quilting embroidery weaving basketry and rug making Works from the United States Canada Latin America Asia the Middle and Near East and Oceania are analyzed in terms of content and utility and cultural and economic implications for the women who created them are discussed Traditional women s work served to document the upheaval in their lives and supplemented their family income By creating textiles that responded to the chaos of war women developed new textile traditions modified old traditions and created a vehicle to express their feelings WTFO - The Silence Is Deafening Khaled Hafid, 2012-10-01 A young Marine Staff Sergeant finally tells the tale of his two year experience in dealing with deployment conflict death and recovery With a unique upbringing as an Arab American he wrestles with his beliefs and emotions while trying to make sense of everything around him It is a story of triumph from sadness victory from the jaws of defeat Follow him through his journey and see what becomes of him Lake Victoria Monitored from Space Joseph Awange, 2020-12-17 This book employs a suite of remotely sensed products and advanced technologies to provide the first comprehensive space based sensing of Lake Victoria the world s second largest freshwater lake that supports a livelihood of more than 42 million people modulates regional climate but faces myriads of challenges Proper understanding of the lake and changes in its physical dynamics e g water level shorelines and areal dynamics resulting from the impacts of climate variation and climate change as well as anthropogenic e g hydropower and irrigation is important for its management as well as for strategic development before during and after climate extremes e g floods and droughts in order to inform policy formulations planning and mitigation measures Owing to its sheer size and lack of research resources commitment by regional governments that hamper its observations however it is a daunting task to undertake studies on Lake Victoria relying solely on in situ boots on the ground measurements which are sparse missing in most cases inconsistent or restricted by governmental red tapes To unlock the potentials of Lake Victoria this book argues for the removal of obsolete Nile treaties signed between Britain Egypt and Sudan in the 1920s and 1950s which prohibits its utilization by the upstream countries The book is useful to those in water resources management and policy formulations hydrologists environmentalists engineers and researchers In a unique cross disciplinary approach the Book articulates the various climatic impacts and explanations from natural and anthropogenic origins which affected Lake Victoria and its vicinity including the drastic increase and depletion of water level in the Lake and dams floods and droughts water quality security crop health food security and economic implications With no exception as in his many publications Joseph L Awange used data analysis methodologies including filtering adjustment theory and robust statistics to quantify the hydrologic and other parameters and their estimated uncertainties The Book is recommended for readers from a diverse disciplines including physical and social sciences policy law engineering and disaster management Professor C K Shum Ohio State University In the Shadow of Ragged Mountain Audrey J. Horning,2004 Americans Without Law Mark S. Weiner,2006-06 Americans Without Law shows how the racial boundaries of civic life are based on widespread perceptions about the relative capacity of minority groups for legal behavior which Mark S Weiner calls juridical racialism The book follows the history of this civic discourse by examining the legal status of four minority groups in four successive historical periods American Indians in the 1880s Filipinos after the Spanish American War Japanese immigrants in the 1920s and African Americans in the 1940s and 1950s Weiner reveals the significance of juridical racialism for each group and in turn Americans as a whole by examining the work of anthropological social scientists who developed distinctive ways of understanding racial and legal identity and through decisions of the U S Supreme Court that put these ethno legal views into practice Combining history anthropology and legal analysis the book argues that the story of juridical racialism shows how race and citizenship served as a nexus for the professionalization of the social sciences the growth of national state power economic modernization and modern practices of the self The Sixties Dimitry Anastakis,2008-02 A new approach to one of the most memorable decades in recent history Essentials of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation E-Book Walter R.
