Comparative Literature in Canada Susan Ingram, Irene Sywenky, 2019-11-05 This timely volume takes stock of the discipline of comparative literature and its theory and practice from a Canadian perspective It engages with the most pressing critical issues at the intersection of comparative literature and other areas of inquiry in the context of scholarship pedagogy and academic publishing bilingualism and multilingualism Indigeneity multiple canons literary and other the relationship between print culture and other media the development of information studies concerted efforts in digitization and the future of the production and dissemination of knowledge The authors offer an analysis of the current state of Canadian comparative literature with a dual focus on the issues of multilingualism in Canada's sociopolitical and cultural context and Canada's geographical location within the Americas It also discusses ways in which contemporary technology is influencing the way that Canadian literature is taught produced and disseminated and how this affects its readings Comparative Literature in Europe Nikol Dziub,Frédérique

Touidoire-Surlapierre,2019-01-03 Thanks to its historical theoretical and methodological dimensions this book is unique both in Europe and in the USA It brings together researchers from across Europe to explain how comparative literature works both on an institutional and a technical level in the country in which they teach The contributions also define the characteristics of European comparative literature on a continental level From Austria to Ukraine by way of Belgium Estonia Finland France Ireland Lithuania Luxembourg Macedonia Poland Portugal Romania Slovakia Spain and Switzerland this book offers an expansive panorama placing great emphasis on usually invisible countries Moreover it relates both to the postcolonial and post Soviet present and to the future of comparative literature it is a handbook but also a laboratory

Comparative Literature: A Very Short Introduction Ben Hutchinson,2018-02-22 Comparative Literature is both the past and the future of literary studies Its history is intimately linked to the political upheavals of modernity from colonial empire building in the nineteenth century via the Jewish diaspora of the twentieth century to the postcolonial culture wars of the twenty first century attempts at comparison have defined the international agenda of literature But what is comparative literature Ambitious readers looking to stretch themselves are usually intrigued by the concept but uncertain of its implications And rightly so in many ways even the professionals cannot agree on a single term calling it comparative in English compared in French and comparing in German The very term itself when approached comparatively opens up a Pandora's box of cultural differences Yet this in a nutshell is the whole point of comparative literature To look at literature comparatively is to realize just how much can be learned by looking over the horizon of one's own culture it is to discover not only more about other literatures but also about one's own and it is to participate in the great utopian dream of understanding the way nations and languages interact In an age that is paradoxically defined by migration and border crossing on the one hand and by a retreat into monolingualism and monoculturalism on the other the cross cultural agenda of comparative literature has become increasingly central to the future of the Humanities We are all in fact comparatists constantly making connections across languages cultures and genres as we read The question is whether we realise it This Very Short Introduction tells the story of Comparative Literature as an agent of international relations from the point of view both of scholarship and of cultural history more generally Outlining the complex history and competing theories of comparative literature Ben Hutchinson offers an accessible means of entry into a notoriously slippery subject and shows how comparative literature can be like a Rorschach test where people see in it what they want to see Ultimately Hutchinson places comparative literature at the very heart of literary criticism for as George Steiner once noted to read is to compare ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Handbook of Anglophone World Literatures Stefan Helgesson,Birgit Neumann,Gabriele Rippl,2020-09-07 The Religious Other Martin Accad,Jonathan Andrews,2020-12-31 We live at a time when religious diversity has become a fact of life in our globalized societies Yet Christian engagement with Muslims remains complex complicated by fear misunderstanding and a history fraught with political and cultural tensions These essays drawn from the 2018 and 2019 Middle East Consultations hosted by the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary's Institute of Middle East Studies engage the need for a carefully developed theological understanding of Islam its origins and its sacred text Weaving together the work of christian scholars of Islam the Bible theology and missiology along with the insights of ministry practitioners this book combines scholarly exploration with pertinent ministry practice offering a rich framework for the church to continue its conversation about its engagement with Muslim communities and its proclamation of Christ worldwide Literature as an Art Form - Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape Asunción López-Varela Azcárate,2025-07-02 Literature as an Art Form Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape brings together sixteen scholarly contributions that explore literature's ongoing transformation across media cultures and technologies This anthology traces the dynamic interplay between literature and visual sonic performative and algorithmic forms ranging from illuminated manuscripts and oral traditions to digital texts and anime Rejecting the notion of literature as a fixed verbal art the chapters highlight its status as a transmedial evolving practice shaped by and shaping the environments in which it is situated Each essay examines how literature migrates across modalities revealing it as a mutable process of techno poesis Together they offer a compelling vision of literature not as an autonomous artefact but as a fluid cultural phenomenon whose conditions of existence are inseparable from intermedial exchange Comparing Literatures: Aspects, Method, and Orientation Alison McIntosh-Varjabédian, Fiona Boulanger,2022-04-04 Globalization is not a new phenomenon Ideas have been circulating all over Europe and the world since ancient times and intercultural dialog is a wide field offering a great variety of approaches In such times as ours when the world is swift to change and cultures are destined to meet sometimes alas to clash the place of literature or broadly speaking human and social sciences within society is often questioned and needs redefining From the reception studies of the 1970s and 1980s to the stress laid on intermedial and intercultural relations not forgetting the work done on cultural transfers this question opens up a wide field of theoretic methodological and aesthetic research which is explored through this volume The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology Federico Zanettin,Christopher Rundle,2022-03-10 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology provides a comprehensive overview of methodologies in translation studies including both well established and more recent approaches The Handbook is organised into three sections the first of which covers methodological issues in the two main paradigms to have emerged from within translation studies namely skopos theory and descriptive translation studies The second section covers multidisciplinary perspectives in research methodology and considers their application in translation research The third section deals with practical and pragmatic methodological issues Each chapter provides a summary of relevant research a literature overview critical issues and topics recommendations for best practice and some suggestions for further reading Bringing together over 30 eminent international scholars from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds this Handbook is essential reading for all students and scholars involved in translation methodology and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2022-09-30 This fully updated new edition of The Routledge Companion to World Literature contains ten brand new chapters on topics such as premodern world literature migration studies world history artificial intelligence global Englishes remediation crime fiction Lusophone literature Middle Eastern literature and oceanic studies Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of world literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of world literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in world literature including gender politics and ethics and a global perspective on the politics of world literature Comprehensive yet accessible this book is ideal as an introduction to world literature or for those looking to extend their knowledge of this essential field Recasting American and Persian Literatures Amirhossein Vafa, 2016-12-09 Reading literary and cinematic events between and beyond American and Persian literatures this book questions the dominant geography of the East West divide which charts the global circulation of texts as World Literature Beyond the limits of national literary historiography and neocolonial cartography of world literary discourse the minor character Parsee Fedallah in Herman Melville's Moby Dick 1851 is a messenger who travels from the margins of the American literature canon to his Persian literary counterparts in contemporary Iranian fiction and film above all the rural woman Mergan in Mahmoud Dowlatbadi's novel Missing Soluch 1980 In contention with Eurocentric treatments of world literatures and in recognition of efforts to recast the worldliness of American and Persian literatures this book maintains that aesthetic properties are embedded in their local histories and formative geographies The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism Literary Transnationalism(s) ,2018-10-16

Goethe in 1827 famously claimed that national literatures did not mean very much anymore and that the epoch of world literature was at hand Since the turn of the twenty first century in the so called transnational turn in literary studies interest in world literature and in how texts move beyond national or linguistic boundaries has peaked The authors of the 18 articles making up Literary Transnationalism s reflect on how literary texts move between cultures via translation adaptation and intertextual referencing thus entering the field of world literature The texts and subjects treated range from Caribbean American and Latin American literature to European migrant literatures from the uses of pseudo translations to the organizing principles of world histories of literature from the dissemination of knowledge in the middle ages to circulation of literary journals and series in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Contributors include amongst others Jean Bessière Johan Callens Reindert Dhondt César Domínguez Erica Durante Ottmar Ette Kathleen Gyssels Reine Meylaerts and Djelal Kadir Authors discussed comprise amongst others Carlos Fuentes Ernest Hemingway Edouard Glissant Indigeneity on the Oceanic Stage ,2024-10-02

This volume examines how Indigenous theatre and performance from Oceania has responded to the intensification of globalisation from the turn of the 20th to the 21st centuries It foregrounds a relational approach to the study of Indigenous texts thus echoing what scholars such as Tui Nicola Clery have described as the stance of a Multi Perspective Culturally Sensitive Researcher To this end it proposes a fluid vision of Oceania characterized by heterogeneity and cultural diversity calling to mind Epeli Hau'ofa's notion of a sea of islands Taking its cue from the theories of Deleuze and Guattari the volume offers a rhizomatic non hierarchical approach to the study of the various shapes of Indigeneity in Oceania It covers Indigenous performance from Aotearoa New Zealand Hawai'i Samoa Rapa Nui Easter Island Australia and the Torres Strait Islands Each chapter uses vivid case histories to explore a myriad of innovative strategies responding to the interplay between the local and the global in contemporary Indigenous performance As it places different Indigenous cultures from Oceania in conversation this critical anthology gestures towards an imparative model of comparative poetics favouring negotiation of cultural difference and urging scholars to engage dialogically with non European artistic forms of expression How to Read World Literature David

Damrosch,2017-09-05 The new edition of this highly popular guide How to Read World Literature addresses the unique challenges and joys faced when approaching the literature of other cultures and eras Fully revised to address important developments in World Literature and generously expanded with new material this second edition covers a wide variety of genres from lyric and epic poetry to drama and prose fiction and discusses how each form has been used in different eras and cultures An ideal introduction for those new to the study of World Literature as well as beginners to ancient and foreign literature this book offers a variety of modes of entry to reading these texts The author a leading authority in the field draws on years of teaching experience to provide readers with ways of thinking creatively and systematically about key issues such as reading across time and cultures reading works in translation emerging global perspectives postcolonialism orality and literacy and more Accessible and enlightening offers readers the tools to navigate works as varied as Homer Sophocles Kalidasa Du Fu Dante Murasaki Moliere Kafka Wole Soyinka and Derek Walcott Fully revised and expanded to reflect the changing face of the study of World Literature especially in the English speaking world Now includes more major authors featured in the undergraduate World Literature syllabus covered within a fuller critical context Features an entirely new chapter on the relationship between World Literature and postcolonial literature How to Read World Literature Second Edition is an excellent text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in World Literature It is also a fascinating and informative read for all readers with an interest in foreign and ancient literature and the history of civilization

Border Crossings Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2016-09-14 For decades Translation Studies has been perceived not merely as a discipline but rather as an interdiscipline a trans disciplinary field operating across a number of boundaries This has implied and still implies a considerable amount of interaction with other disciplines There is often much more awareness of and attention to translation and Translation Studies than many translation scholars are aware of This volume crosses the boundaries to other disciplines and explicitly sets up dialogic formats every chapter is co authored both by a specialist from Translation Studies and a scholar from another discipline with a special interest in translation Sixteen disciplinary dialogues about and around translation are the result sometimes with expected partners such as scholars from Computational Linguistics History and Comparative Literature but sometimes also with less expected interlocutors such as scholars from Biosemiotics Game Localization Research and Gender Studies The volume not only challenges the boundaries of Translation Studies but also raises issues such as the institutional division of disciplines the cross fertilization of a given field the trends and turns within an interdiscipline

Re-mapping World Literature Gesine Müller, Jorge J. Locane, Benjamin Loy, 2018-03-05 How can we talk about World Literature if we do not actually examine the world as a whole Research on World Literature commonly focuses on the dynamics of a western center and a southern periphery ignoring the fact that numerous literary relationships exist beyond these established constellations of thinking and reading within the Global South Re Mapping World Literature suggests a different approach that aims to investigate new navigational tools that extend beyond the known poles and meridians of current literary maps Using the example of Latin American literatures this study provides innovative insights into the literary modeling of shared historical experiences epistemological crosscurrents and book market processes within the Global South which thus far have received scant attention The contributions to this volume from renowned scholars in the fields of World and Latin American literatures assess travelling aesthetics and genres processes of translation and circulation of literary works as well as the complex epistemological entanglements and shared worldviews between Latin America Africa and Asia A timely book that embraces highly innovative perspectives it will be a must read for all scholars involved in the field of the global dimensions of literature

Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation Harriet

Hulme, 2018-11-19 Ethics and Aesthetics of Translation engages with translation in both theory and practice as part of an interrogation of ethical as well as political thought in the work of three bilingual European authors Bernardo Atxaga Milan Kundera and Jorge Sempr n In approaching the work of these authors the book draws upon the approaches to translation offered by Benjamin Derrida Ric ur and Deleuze to highlight a broad set of ethical questions focused upon the limitations of the monolingual and the democratic possibilities of linguistic plurality upon our innate desire to translate difference into similarity and upon the ways in which translation responds to the challenges of individual and collective remembrance Each chapter explores these interlingual but also intercultural interrelational and interdisciplinary issues mapping a journey of translation that begins in the impact of translation upon the work of each author continues into moments of linguistic translation untranslatability and mistranslation within their texts and ultimately becomes an exploration of social political and affective un translatability In these journeys the creative and critical potential of translation emerges as a potent often violent but always illuminating vision of the possibilities of differentiation and connection generation and memory in temporal linguistic cultural and political terms
