form of racial restriction on its residents The United States proclaims a belief in freedom and justice for all but members of various minority racial groups have often faced a different reality as seen in such examples as the forcible dispossession of indigenous peoples during the Trail of Tears Jim Crow laws crushing discrimination of blacks and the manifest unfairness of the Chinese Exclusion Act Including the District of Columbia the 51 entries in these two volumes cover the state specific histories of all of the major minority and immigrant groups in the United States including African Americans Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans Every state has had a unique experience in attempting to build a community comprising multiple racial groups and the chronologies narratives and biographies that compose the entries in this collection explore the consequences of racism from states perspectives revealing distinct new insights into their respective racial histories

Pathways to Urban Sustainability National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Policy and Global Affairs, Science and Technology for Sustainability Program, Committee on Pathways to Urban Sustainability: Challenges and Opportunities, 2016-10-11 Cities have experienced an unprecedented rate of growth in the last decade More than half the world's population lives in urban areas with the U S percentage at 80 percent Cities have captured more than 80 percent of the globe's economic activity and offered social mobility and economic prosperity to millions by clustering creative innovative and educated individuals and organizations Clustering populations however can compound both positive and negative conditions with many modern urban areas experiencing growing inequality debility and environmental degradation The spread and continued growth of urban areas presents a number of concerns for a sustainable future particularly if cities cannot adequately address the rise of poverty hunger resource consumption and biodiversity loss in their borders Intended as a comparative illustration of the types of urban sustainability pathways and subsequent lessons learned existing in urban areas this study examines specific examples that cut across geographies and scales and that feature a range of urban sustainability challenges and opportunities for collaborative learning across metropolitan regions It focuses on nine cities across the United States and Canada Los Angeles CA New York City NY Philadelphia PA Pittsburgh PA Grand Rapids MI Flint MI Cedar Rapids IA Chattanooga TN and Vancouver Canada chosen to represent a variety of metropolitan regions with consideration given to city size proximity to coastal and other waterways susceptibility to hazards primary industry and several other factors

The Conservatives Have No Clothes Greg Anrig Jr., 2007-09-01 Why conservatism equals terrible government and always will Ending the conservative era requires organizing yes but also hard thinking and shrewd analysis When progressives of the future look back at how they triumphed one of the people they'll thank is Greg Anrig Drawing inspiration from the work of the early neoconservatives who demolished public support for liberal programs Anrig casts a sharp eye on conservative ideas and nostrums and shows that many of them simply don't work because they are rooted more in ideological dreams than in reality Facts are stubborn things Ronald Reagan once said and Anrig makes good use of them in this important and engaging book E J Dionne syndicated columnist and author of Why Americans Hate Politics Greg Anrig's wide ranging and perceptive book looks beyond the ideology of the right and offers a persuasive account of the many policy failures that have emerged out of the conservative movement Anrig has put the Bush administration and the right to a test that they themselves have carefully avoided He has held them accountable not for their ideas but for their performance Alan Brinkley Allan Nevins Professor of History Columbia University In this well researched and witty book Anrig critiques right wing ideas by examining what the policies and programs that embodied them have wrought over the last three decades While giving several conservative ideas their due he finds their record to be mixed at best John J DiIulio Jr political science professor and first director of the White House Office of Faith Based and Community Initiatives With fastidious research and unimpeachable facts Greg Anrig establishes the sound proposition that competent governance is incompatible with disbelief in government The odd combination of the religious right dictating personal morality neoconservatism preaching unilateral interventionism and radical libertarian tax cuts have cast our Republic adrift from its moorings Restoration of common sense to government is long overdue Gary Hart Former United States Senator
