Balkan Fighters in the Syrian War Tanja Dramac Jiries, 2021-09-15 This book analyses the process of the recruitment of foreign fighters from the Western Balkans specifically Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo to Syria and Iraq from 2012 to 2015 Utilizing in depth semi structured interviews with foreign fighters and their families as well as a number of relevant stakeholders it answers the question of what were the processes and circumstances leading up to the departure of foreign fighters from Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo and what informed their agency The author draws on the theories of social movement approaches more specifically contentious politics literature and utilizes the specific concepts of triggering mechanisms which refer to the enabling circumstances that make the radicalization and departure possible and pleasure in agency to elaborate on individual motivation The book also shows how a wider state fragility within the context of the post Yugoslav wars and the transitional period that never ended aided radicalization and how an incomplete process of post war transition can fuel the process of political and religious radicalization creating a wider enabling web for recruitment It will be of interest to students and scholars of Southeast European politics and foreign policy post war democratic transition security policy and radicalization more broadly

Cooperative and Work-Integrated Education in Asia Yasushi Tanaka, Karsten Zegwaard, 2018-09-28 It has been over a century since Cooperative System of Education a work study programme for higher education was initiated by Herman Schneider at University of Cincinnati in the United States Today it is known as Cooperative Education which is commonly included within the umbrella term of Work Integrated Learning and broadly referred to by the World Association of Cooperative Education WACE as Cooperative and Work Integrated Education CWIE Its development worldwide has been closely related to the socioeconomic background of the region This book offers the first attempt to focus on the development of CWIE in Asia To date the development of CWIE in the Asia region has been slow compared to their counterparts The analysis follows international comparisons of China Japan Korea Hong Kong Vietnam Thailand Malaysia and Singapore on their educational history vocational education CWIE and future issues Although the level of development varies among them there is no doubt that this region as a whole is experiencing a rapidly growing global demographic and economic prominence CWIE can and to some extent already does play an important supportive role as part of growth The book goes on to conclude that in order to enable further successful expansion of CWIE and improve its best practice it is imperative to establish national and regional associations for CWIE as well as establish collaborative research activities across the region with governmental funding support
