

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Developmentalist Cities? Interrogating Urban Developmentalism in East Asia, 2018-11-26 Developmentalist Cities addresses the missing urban story in research on East Asian developmentalism and the missing developmentalist story in studies of East Asian urbanization It does so by promoting inter disciplinary research into the subject of urban developmentalism a term that editors Jamie Doucette and Bae Gyoong Park use to highlight the particular nature of the urban as a site of and for developmentalist intervention The contributors to this volume deepen this concept by examining the legacy of how Cold War and post Cold War geopolitical economy spaces of exception from special zones to industrial districts and diverse forms of expertise have helped produce urban space in East Asia Contributors Carolyn Cartier Christina Kim Chilcote Young Jin Choi Jamie Doucette Eli Friedman Jim Glassman Heidi Gottfried Laam Hae Jinn yuh Hsu Iam Chong Ip Jin Bum Jang Soo Hyun Kim Jana M Kleibert Kah Wee Lee Seung Ook Lee Christina Moon Bae Gyoong Park Hyun Bang Shin

China's Regional Development and Tibet Rongxing Guo, 2015-10-16 This book pursues both narrative and analytic approaches to better understand China s spatial economic development and its implications for Tibet Accordingly this book focuses on Tibet an autonomous region in the far west of China as the subject of an in depth case study highlighting its unique geopolitical and socioeconomic features and external and boundary conditions China s great diversity in terms of physical geography resource endowment political economy and ethnicity and religion has posed challenges to the studies of spatial and interprovincial issues Indeed the Chinese nation is far too huge and spatially diverse to be easily interpreted The only feasible approach to analyzing it is therefore to divide it into smaller geographical elements so as to arrive at better insights into the country s spatial mechanisms and regional characteristics In this context the book combines analytic and narrative approaches

International Perspectives on Writing Curricula and Development Jill Jeffery, Judy M. Parr, 2021-05-27 This book contributes to the innovation of writing education and research globally by providing crucial insights into how the structures and aims of literacy curricula vary internationally It examines how nine education systems across five continents represent good writing in curricula that shape students experiences learning to write in school The book presents curricular analyses aimed at providing insight into how writing development can be better supported through innovative policy and research. The findings regarding international variation are presented under three broad dimensions: social and contextual factors that shape writing curricula; the discourses of writing reflected in curricula and official documents; and hallmarks of classroom practice including the relationship with official discourse. Case study chapters present integrated inductive and deductive document analyses, findings of which are compared in a concluding cross case analysis chapter. Offering a detailed comparative analysis of writing research, International Perspectives on Writing Curricula and Development will be of great interest to academics, researchers and students in the fields of education, literacy and curriculum studies. It will also be relevant reading for policymakers and curriculum designers.
