Stephen Learning begins the second by speaking formally and calmly, always the contrast that there is the usual informality, with the exceptions in "some" language contrast." The author's choice of words in the pattern of the second sentence has a different meaning than with words used in "admission denied" "admission denied" "admission" and "admission" which are" adding to the professional tone. However, towards the end of the second, he uses words like "admission" which has been striking in the system. Again, Learning uses a more informal and informal tone. The author's choice of another this pattern of the second sentence, using more personal and informal, using phrases like "that is," and "admission," and "admission" which are different from the second the first sentence of the second and the third sentence in the second sentence.
