Two Fae princes vie for her affection and her sister doesn't like it one bit. But this isn't Aerith's story. Sure Mel might have gotten herself into a pickle but she's got everything under control kinda. Not. Next thing she knows she's being threatened with marriage gowns and worst of all a crown. Ahem Mel likes pointy things at the end of a hilt in her hand NOT on her head. Meanwhile very pregnant and put out by her ongoing role at Dahlquist castle Aerith is prepared to do whatever it takes to save her sister and leave Faerie for good. Liri has other ideas. Too bad the Fae hole abandoned his kingdom Aerith is in charge now and if Liri doesn't return soon she'll crown a new king. The final battle between the two Elmray families is about to begin. It's a good thing Dahlquist has elves on its side. But will the cost of winning be too great.

Spellcaster Wild Card Nikki Jefford, 2024-10-01. Win the game. Change the world. Winning the show means living forever. It is the golden ticket to fame, fortune and a place among the vampire elite. Being remade isn't on my wish list. I like being me and with nearly a million online followers it's working. My parents and big sister are the do-gooders in our family who want to make the world a fair and just place for all humans and paranormal creatures. I just want to finish high school and keep doing what I do best: sharing hair and beauty tips while discussing Spellcaster and how the show's vampire judge Malachi Rayne is the hottest male on the planet. Then life as I know it ends. There are evil forces who will stop at nothing to maintain world dominance indefinitely. It's hard to care when I've become dead inside and out. After my family is violently attacked the host of Spellcaster insists I audition for Season 13. For the first time in the show's history they want to represent every species of paranormals. That's me now. Not human. Not vampire. Not the class of creature anyone EVER cheers for. This season's prize is power beyond anyone's imagination. It is the kind of reward that contestants and their sponsors would kill to possess. Let the other contestants and judges underestimate me. They can gossip all they want about the hotshot wizard and the alpha werewolf behaving as though I'm another prize to be won. And if Coach Malachi can't handle a bold influencer with abilities then he can suck it. I preferred watching him from the other side of the screen. He's about to discover that Haylee Hutchins is a force to be reckoned with. The whole world will. Someone thought they could silence my family for good. Instead they created a monster. I'm still here and I am much harder to kill. Praise for Spellcaster Wild Card Nikki Jefford has given pop culture a paranormal twist and you don't want to miss it. Wendy Higgins. New York Times bestselling author of Sweet Evil. Fanfreakingtastic. There are so many surprises that the synopsis can't possibly prepare you for. This isn't just about a competition or spellcasting. It's about family and love and trust, bigotry, heartache, loss, murder and metamorphosis. Michelle Helen Fritz, author of A Court Of Broken Dreams Curses Fangtastic. This book creates a new take on supernatural creatures: vamps, werewolves, witches and zombies living among humans from the POV of a teen beauty product influencer known for her magic casting skills. I won't spoil the heart-stopping twist in the beginning. I'll sum up with Spellcaster is a macabre take on a magic-focused reality show competition that delves into deep societal hardships including celebrity obsession with elite vampire cliques and species relations/tensions which comes with stereotyping and bigotry, competitor alliances and in turn
